Pontifical Requiem Mass Is Offered This Morning For Msgr. John L. Sheridan

A Pontifical Requiem Mass was offered in the Chapel of the Immaculate Conception at Mount Saint Mary's College, Emmitsburg, at 11 o'clock this morning for Rt. Rev. John L. Sheridan, P.A., president emeritus, who was fatally stricken Monday evening.

The Most Rev. Lawrence J. Shehan, D.D., Archbishop of Baltimore, was the celebrant. Deacons of honor were Rt. Rev. Maurice W. Roche, Baltimore, and Rt. Rev. George D. Mulcahy, rector of the Seminary. The archpriest was the Rt. Rev. William F. Culhane, college treasurer, and the master of ceremonies, Rev. Gommar A. DePauw, academic dean of the Seminary. Other officers of the Mass were seminarians.

Rt. Rev. Robert H. Kline, Ph.D., college president, delivered the eulogy. He said in part:

"Forty-three years ago this very morning a young man prostrate before the altar, heard himself pronounced worthy for reception into the priesthood. Arising, he received by ordination that sacred spiritual character which was his personal participation in the redemptive work of Christ. For forty years Father Sheridan devoted his many talents to the priesthood with a vigor characteristic of his excellent bodily health.

HAS HEART ATTACK

"Stricken three years ago by the heart attack which required months of hospitalization, he found it no longer possible to resume his former schedule. But while the forces of his natural life were at times perceptibly ebbing, he found, as a priest will find, that his sacerdotal character retained its original vigor and glory. He must have been conscious more than ever in his later days of his most precious gift, a personal participation in the priesthood of Christ.

"A strong sense of personal loss will be experienced by the nephew and nieces of Monsignor Sheridan, but it cannot be tragedy if they see in their uncle that which he sought most to be, another Christ.

COUSIN ORDAINED

"We of the Mount, where priests are formed, already have the bequest of the sacerdotal character Monsignor Sheridan so well served. Three days before his death he witnessed the ordination of a cousin in Wilmington, Del., where he visibly rejoiced in the perpetuation of his own priesthood. His own last Mass was said on the very day of Father Mullin's first solemn Mass.

"Monsignor Sheridan was twice dignified by honorary degrees for his administrative attainments. He was twice honored by Rome for ecclesiastical accomplishments. He directed one-sixth of the life of the second oldest Catholic College and Seminary in the United States. Thousands of alumni have benefited from his work and were impressed with some part of his personality. But all these accomplishments take their meaning from his priesthood. Because of his sacerdotal character he was privileged to devote himself to the name of the Immaculate Virgin on this campus. His spiritual life was daily nourished by personal contact with the mysteries of the altar. He lived his life within yards of the tabernacle, and died with 13 of his fellow priests in attendance.

"DEVOTION TO OFFICE"

"Some priests have accomplished more, some less, but all carry into eternity the mark of their ordination. In their lives they are respected most for their priestliness; in their death they

JOINT AAUW INSTALLATION IS HELD HERE

The Gettysburg and Franklin County branches of the American Association of University Women Wednesday evening paid tribute to two of their members who will be retiring from service in the field of education this year.

Dean Margaret C. Disert and Miss Helen Borneman, librarian, of Wilson College, were presented with books which will be placed in the Wilson College library in their honor.

The presentation was made by Mrs. Richard B. Bacik, president of the Chambersburg unit, at the annual dinner meeting of the two branches at the Lamp Post Tea Room here.

Dean Disert then installed officers of both units.

NEW LOCAL OFFICERS

For Gettysburg the new officers are: Mrs. James Sheen, president; Dr. Martha Storek, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Chan Coulter, recording secretary.

Mrs. William M. Lott, who presided, introduced Miss Linia Lee Griffin of New Oxford as the recipient of the local branch's scholarship award.

Mrs. Arthur Boenau, vice president, introduced the speaker, Dr. Clara Cockerille, whose subject, "Where Orient and Occident Meet," gave personal observations and interpretations to one of the study topics considered by the local group during the last year.

READ, THEN TRAVEL

Dr. Cockerille, who toured the South Pacific last summer, urged members: "If you are going to travel, read before you go. Otherwise there is no understanding, just a change of sky."

The 21 days required to travel to New Zealand illustrate the vastness of "Oceana," the speaker said. With a deep interest in anthropology she found the people, education and home conditions of particular interest. She noted the five groups of people in the Pacific area, the many islands and the simplicity of life there. This simplicity, according to Dr. Cockerille, results in near poverty in some areas where fertil valleys go uncultivated.

The Polynesians interested her most with their great beauty and their great love for children. She also found them to be a people who are very proud of their ancestors and who are trying to

Have Openings In Summer Classes

The typing class being offered this summer at the Gettysburg Senior High School is filling rapidly with students from Grades Seven through 12, a school announcement said today. There is sufficient time for additional enrollments.

If students in these grades are interested in taking the course from June 8 through July 20 from 9 a.m. until 12 noon, they should secure an enrollment blank in the Senior High School office. The maximum cost of the typing course in $17.50 per student and the minimum, if 35 students enroll, will be $10 per student.

There is also room for students who wish to enroll in a developmental reading course to be offered during the same period. The cost of this course will range from $10 to $15. Payment for the course is made during the first meeting. Some students were enrolled through invitation but the course is open to all students who wish to improve in reading. If there are any questions, parents may contact Charles E. Tressler, senior high principal.

RECOMMENDS DIVORCE

Attorney Edward B. Bulleit, in his report as master in the divorce action of Norman Leroy Humbert Sr., 130 Hanover St., New Oxford, against Rosalie Wyatt Humbert, Lincolnway West, New Oxford, filed in the prothonotary's office, recommends the divorce on grounds of indignities.

DRIVER ARRESTED

Mrs. Mary Ann Barrick, 20, Abbottstown R. 1, was arrested by Hanover police for failure to yield the right of way to oncoming traffic after her car and a vehicle operated by Mrs. Rebecca A. Gardner, 22, Hanover R. 2, collided in Hanover Wednesday evening at 5:10. No one was injured.

Nine Countians Inducted Today

Nine Adams Countians were inducted into the armed forces today by the county Selective Service Board in one of the largest groups in a number of months. At the same time 47 were sent for final physical examinations. The men left by bus from the post office building at 7 a.m. today.

A volunteer, Thomas P. Orwig, Hanover R. 4, was the leader for the group that was inducted and Robert H. Millar, 115 Lincolnway West, New Oxford, was the assistant leader.

The others were Donald L. Martz, East Berlin; Robert C. Bostwick, Fairfield R. 2; John E. Kuhn, Gettysburg R. 5; Francis C. Noel Jr., Hanover R. 4; Fred E. Berwager, Abbottstown R. 1; Daniel J. Miller, 22 S. 4th St., McSherrystown, and James L. Hippensteel, 145 Carlisle St., Hanover.

BIGLERVILLE, ARENDTSVILLE RITES SUNDAY

Plans for the annual memorial services at Arendtsville and Biglerville Sunday afternoon were announced today by John Stover of the Ira Lady Post of the American Legion, sponsor of the two programs.

Rev. John R. Strevig, pastor of the Lutheran Church at St. Thomas and a former Army chaplain, will speak at the Arendtsville exercises, while Attorney Donald M. Swope, Gettysburg, a World War II army officer who served in the European Theater of Operations, will speak at Biglerville.

The Biglerville High School Band and the Ira Lady Post of the American Legion will participate in both programs.

PARADE AT 2

At Arendtsville the services will begin at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon when the parade of Legionnaires, band and school children will march from the Arendtsville National Bank to the Greenmount Cemetery.

After strewing of flowers on the graves in the two Arendtsville cemeteries by the school children, the Lady Post of the American Legion will present the Legion ritual and firing of a volley.

Luther Lady will be master of ceremonies for the cemetery exercises at Arendtsville. The invocation will be given by Rev. Fred Trimble, pastor of the Ar-

WEIKERT WINS LAND JUDGING FFA CONTEST

Robert Weikert, a student at Gettysburg High School, was announced today as the winner in the Adams County Future Farmers of America land judging contest held Monday afternoon at the farm of Ralph Simpson, Gettysburg R. 5.

Forty-one youths from the Biglerville, Bermudian Springs, Fairfield, Gettysburg and New Oxford FFA chapters participated in the event for which Henry Mattox and Bobby Rakestraw of the Soil Conservation Service were judges. Teachers assisting in the contest were John White, Stephen Heyser, Robert Leiter, Charles Smith and Elmer Schriver.

Points were given for various parts of the contest and teachers met Wednesday night to tabulate the scores and determine the winners.

OTHER TOP CONTESTANTS

Weikert scored 272 points to take first place in the event. Philip Hill, also a Gettysburg High School student, was second with 260 2/3 points. Third was Carl Klinedinst, Bermudian Springs, with 257 points.

The 10 top placings in the event will receive awards. The other they secured were Glenn Sauble, seven and the number of points Bermudian Springs, 256 1/3; Russell Sager, New Oxford, 250 2/3; Dan Leathery, Bermudian Springs, 247; Donald Taylor, Biglerville, 245; Steve Redding, Gettysburg, 236 2/3; Steven Warner, Biglerville, 233 1/2, and John E. Howe, Bermudian Springs, 229.

The contest, one of several conducted by the newly-formed Adams County FFA chapter, is designed to develop knowledge of land values on the part of the youngsters taking the agriculture course at the school.

PANCAKE SUPPER

The Eagles Booster Club of Bermudian Springs High School will hold a benefit pancake supper Saturday from 4 to 8 p.m. at the Hampton fire hall. A handmade afghan will be awarded at 8 o'clock.

BULLETINS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—All voting machines have been ordered reopened and a complete recount taken in Philadelphia of the vote in the Democratic U. S. senator nomination contest.

Maurice Osser, chairman of the Election Bureau here, said the county commissioners decided to open all the machines after opening some and finding some differences.

The differences Osser referred to threw the close contest between Justice Michael A. Musmanno of the state Supreme Court and state Secretary of Internal Affairs Genevieve Glatt into a tie.

Osser said the recount process would start at 1 p.m. today and would take three days.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania called today for changes in President Johnson's program to aid poverty-stricken Appalachia, including an additional $10 million to aid coal mining areas.

Johnson has endorsed the additional funds, but Scranton said amendments to provide the money have not yet been submitted to Congress.

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—A federal appeals court held today that longshoremen cannot be compelled to work ships blacklisted for trading with Communist Cuba.

"Union members need not mount a platform to voice their moral revulsion against Castro," said Chief Judge Simon E. Sobeloff of the 4th U. S. Circuit Court.

ATTEND C-D MEETING

William G. Weaver, county Civil Defense director, and two of his staff went to Lebanon Wednesday for a state-wide Civil Defense meeting conducted by Dr. Richard Gerstel, state C-D director. Accompanying Mr. Weaver were Harry Fasick Sr., York Springs, head of the radiological services in the county, and Paul Hilterbrick, Littlestown C-D director.

SHOE BOX MOVING

The Shoe Box is moving from the Eckert Building on Chambersburg St. to the Lippy building in the same block this week and will open for business in its larger quarters Friday at 1 p.m.

The business was begun by Harold H. Reuning in the Wentz building on Baltimore St. in 1938 and two years later moved to the Eckert building.

28TH DIVISION WILL SEND 400 HERE MAY 30

Final plans for participation by 400 members of the 28th Division, Pennsylvania National Guard, 100 each from Johnstown and Scranton and 200 from Philadelphia, in the Memorial Day activities here were outlined Wednesday at a meeting of Lt. Col. Edward Laufenberg, who will be in charge of the contingent, with Chester S. Shriver, chairman of the local May 30 committee.

Col. Laufenberg, Shriver and other officials of the local Memorial Day committee went over the plans and took the visiting officer on a tour of the parade route and cemetery site. The 400 soldiers will arrive shortly before noon May 30 at Recreation Park where the troops will eat box lunches. They will then march in companies of 100 men each to the starting site of the parade on Springs Ave.

ASK STORE CLOSINGS

After taking part in the parade, the guardsmen will mass before the rostrum for the program at which U. S. Senator Bourke Hickenlooper will be the speaker. Some of the guardsmen will serve as a guard of honor at the graves of the unknown soldiers in the cemetery during the ritual service and strewing of flowers.

In connection with Memorial Day, the committee has asked all stores in the town to close, at least during the afternoon. The members of the Retail Merchants Association are planning to close for the day, the committee was told. A request was made that nonmembers as well close "at least from 2 to 4 o'clock during the Memorial Day parade and exercises."

Judge W. C. Sheely will be master of ceremonies for the rostrum program at which Congressman George A. Goodling will introduce Senator Hickenlooper. Attorney Eugene R. Hartman will recite Lincoln's Gettysburg Address.

Three Countians On European Tour

Three Adams County students were among a group of Shippensburg State College students who toured England and Scotland under the sponsorship of the college English department. They left Shippensburg April 20 and returned to the campus May 4 after the tour which included the opening Shakespeare festivities April 23 at Stratford-upon-Avon. They were among the first visitors to the Exhibition Hall, where the writer's life is symbolized.

Local students in the tour were Sandy Labofish, Fairfield R. 2; James Kroh, Littlestown R. 2, and Mary Ann Dissinger, East Berlin R. 2. They traveled 1,800 miles by land and 7,200 miles by air.

FILE DAMAGE SUIT

Damages in excess of $2,000 are sought in a court suit filed in York Monday, by Harry R. Miller, Gardners R. 1, against H. Earl Pitzer, Inc., Aspers, and Carl L. Weber, Camp Hill. The treaspass suit stems from a traffic accident near the Dillsburg bypass last February 18. Miller, an assistant equipment engineer for the State Highway Department, claims damages for injuries.

Stevenson Renews Pledge To Defend Southeast Asia From Communist Aggression

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson pledged today that the United States will continue to defend southeast Asia against Communist attacks as long as the people of the area are determined to preserve their independence.

The chief U.S. delegate charged that the clear aim of the Indochinese Communist party and the Communist leadership of Viet Nam "is to take over control of all Indochina."

Stevenson, who rushed back Wednesday from a European tour, told the U.N. Security Council that the United States has consistently come to the aid of peoples attacked from the outside.

And it will do so again, he said, "Unless the lesson is learned once and for all by all aggressors that armed aggression does not pay—that it no longer works—that it will not be tolerated."

CRISIS WORSENS

He asserted that the crisis in southeast Asia "has taken a turn for the worse."

"My government takes a very grave view of these events," he added. "Those who are responsible have set foot upon an exceedingly dangerous path."

The council debate originally was sparked by a Cambodian charge that the United States and South Viet Nam had committed aggression in recent border incidents. Both the United States and Viet Nam replied that the violations were accidental and that they wanted to settle the matter peacefully.

Meanwhile, however, the United States plunged into general exposition of the U.S. policy in all southeast Asia.

"WILL NOT STAND BY"

Stevenson told the council: "The United States cannot

Culp Farm Barn Saved By Firemen

Gettysburg firemen were summoned Wednesday evening about 8 o'clock to the barn on the Culp Farm on E. Middle St. Smoke was pouring from the barn, and firemen found a small haymow afire.

Fire Chief Robert Hartman said about a half-ton of the hay was destroyed, but firemen were able to prevent spread of the fire to the barn itself. "No damage" was noted on the fire report. Hartman said it was not immediately determined how the fire began. The barn, house and farmland are owned by the National Park Service. W. W. Kaufman farms the land, Hartman said.

DR. QUANBECK AGAIN SENT TO ROME MEETING

Dr. Warren A. Quanbeck, visiting professor of systematic theology at the Lutheran Seminary, and one of the Lutheran observers at the Vatican Ecumenical Council sessions in Rome last year, is one of two continuous delegates appointed to attend the third Vatican Council.

The local theologian was named to represeent the Lutheran World Federation by its executive secretary, Dr. Kurt Schmidt-Clausen. The other is Rt. Rev. Sven Silen, bishop of Vasteras in the Church of Sweden.

The third LWF delegate observer chair will be occupied alternately by Dr. Vilmos Vajta of Geneva, director of the LWF Department of Theology; Dr. K. E. Skydsgaard, professor of systematic theology at the University of Copenhagen, and Dr. George A. Lindbeck, research professor of the Lutheran Foundation for Interconfessional Research in Strasbourg, France.

By the time the session opens on September 14, Dr. Vajta will have succeeded Dr. Lindbeck as research professor at Strasbourg, and the latter will have returned to a chair of historical theology at Yale Divinity School in New Haven, Conn.

D. Lindbeck's predecessor as the first LWF interconfessional research professor was Dr. Skydsgaard. Professor Quanbeck, Bishop Silen and Professor Skydsgaard are all members of the Board of Trustees of the foundation of Strasbourg. Dr. Quanbeck is also on the LWF Commission on Theology.

To Charge Driver After Accident

Damage to the car of Harry W. Kauffman, 21, Philadelphia, was estimated at $500 this morning at 12:20 o'clock after it struck the curb at the intersection of Broadway and College Ave.

Borough police said Kauffman was driving south on the Mummasburg Rd. and lost control of his vehicle at the curve as the road enters the borough. His auto struck the sidewalk on the east side of the College Ave. intersection and then continued across the intersection and struck the sidewalk on the south side.

Police will charge Kauffman with reckless driving before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder, according to their report.

CHECK 5 FIRES ON JACK'S MT. ON WEDNESDAY

Five fires, said by Fire Warden Lawrence Shindledecker, of Charmian, to have been started by a passing Western Maryland Railway train, burned along Jack's Mountain Wednesday afternoon.

Nearly 100 men took part in the fire fights, moving from one blaze to another until all were brought under control about 4 p.m.

Fountaindale, Fairfield and Blue Ridge Summit Fire Companies were summoned to assist. Ten men reported for service from the Penn-Moc Shoe Company in Fairfield and 15 from the Blue Ridge Pipe and Nipple plant at Greenstone. Shindledecker praised both companies for "their willingness to permit their employes to take part in battling these and prior fires on the mountains.' About 30 forest fire fighters came from Michaux district and the forestry school.

OVER 35 A. BURN

Shindledecker said the fires were noted shortly after noon, immediately after a train passed along the railway along the mountain. The largest of the fires was on the eastern side of the south slope of the mountain near Fairfield where about 35 acres burned over and the fire went over the top of the mountain before being brought under control.

Smaller fires occurred at four other spots west of the larger fire up to a spot near the old Jack's Mountain station.

All of the fires, with the exception of the one which spread to the top of the mountain, were confined between the present Western Maryland Railway tracks and the roadbed for the old tapeworm railroad about 150 to 250 yards farther up the side of the mountain paralleling the Western Maryland tracks.

While the fire was confined to under brush and lower branches of trees, Shindledecker said he believed most of the trees in the fire area will die as a result of the blazes.

Hartman To Speak At Services Sunday

Atty. Eugene R. Hartman, Gettysburg, will be the speaker Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the 75th annual memorial services of the Fairfield community in the high school auditorium. H. James Justice, elementary teacher, will deliver Lincoln's Gettysburg Address.

The Fairfield High School Band, under the direction of Charles C. Rogers, will play "The Star Spangled Banner," and the Senior Chorus will sing "America the Beautiful" and "America Our Heritage," directed by Thomas R. Watkins. Rev. Alfred Gottwalt, pastor, Orrtanna EUB Church, will give the invocation and Rev. Robert E. Paden, pastor, United Church of Christ, Fairfield, will give the benediction. Thomas Kittinger will play taps.

Stuart Sites Jr. will be master of ceremonies.

LICENSED TO WED

Leroy C. Milhime, New Oxford R. 2, and Virginia Simmons, Gettysburg, have secured a marriage license in Westminster.

BEGIN TRIAL OF CROSS SUITS IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Trial of cross suits evolving from an auto accident along the Bonneauville Rd., in which Robert L. Schroyer and Charles G. Kachel, both of Gettysburg R. 5, were the drivers involved, began this morning in Adams County court.

Among the witnesses were County Engineer LeRoy H. Winebrenner with maps of the accident area; State Policeman James Hydock, who investigated the crash, and Dr. Herman Galey of York.

Dr. Galey told of treatment and an operation on Schroyer in the York Hospital.

TELLS OF TROUBLES

Schroyer told his version of the accident and then recounted his difficulties with his left shoulder which he alleges arose from the accident. The pain in his left shoulder, he said, was intermittent and responded to ointment and heat treatment for some time, then became more severe. Physical therapy treatments did not solve the problem and eventually he was admitted to the York Hospital and placed in head harness traction. This still did not relieve the pain, he said, which had spread from the shoulder to include the arm as well.

He finally was operated on at the neck and, after an emergency return to the hospital when complications arose in connection with the operation site, he fully recovered, with the exception of pain occasionally at the operation site. He said he was unable to work for 22 weeks as a result of the shoulder difficulties, resuming his $131 a week job March 16.

Attorneys Donald M. Swope and H. Thomas Pyle are representing Schroyer and Acco Realty Co. which owned the car Schroyer was driving at the time of the accident, who are suing Kachel, and American Casualty Co. which is named as codefendant with Schroyer in a suit brought by Kachel. Attorney S. M. Raffensperger is representing Kachel.

GIRL SCOUTS OF TROOP 750 "GRADUATED"

Senior Girl Scout Troop 750 held a service of "Rededication and Graduation" Monday afternoon at Christ Lutheran Church. Peggy Shealer was the mistress of ceremonies. The flag ceremony was conducted by Virginia Lee Deardorff, Bonnie Baker, Carol Codori, Marjorie Reynolds and Cynthia Streett.

A candle service based on the "Eight Indispensables," the foundation of the new Senior Girl Scout program, was presented by Cathy Bishop, Virginia Lee Deardorff, Louise Harbach, Coleen McCleaf, Linda Parish, Carol Stoner, Angela Teeter and Sheryl Vernon, with an affirmation by all the Scouts. The red rose was the crest of the graduating girls and it was used to represent the three parts of the Girl Scout Promise and the 10 laws. Ellen Johnson, Nancy Murdock, Diana Weaver, Sheryl Jackson, Susan Musser, Toni Barriga, Linda Riley, Betty Hostetter, Hilda Hull, Cheryl Kuhn, Susan Swope, Paula Olinger and Ginger Weaver led the Scouts in repeating the promise and laws and placed their roses in a vase. Carolyn Musselman presented the bouquet of red roses to Mrs. Harry Baker, leader of the remaining girls in the troop, symbolizing the passing on of the tradition and ideals of Girl Scouting.

READS PROPHECY

Carol Stoner read a prophecy prepared for the graduating girls and Deborah Swope read a will directed toward the remaining girls in the troop.

Mrs. William Musser Jr. and Mrs. Julius Swope presented awards and certificates of graduation to the following girls, the majority of whom have been associated since the Second Grade as Brownies: Toni Barriga, Betty Hostetter, Hilda

400 RESERVATIONS

Four hundred reservations have been made for the banquet of the East Berlin High School Alumni Association to be held Saturday evening at 6:30 o'clock at Pleasant Hill fire hall. Any cancellations should be made to the secretary, Mrs. Clark Fry, Abbottstown R. 1, so that those on a waiting list may be accommodated.

The Shoe Box will be closed Wednesday and Thursday for moving. Open Friday noon at new location: Lippy Building, Chambersburg St.

ONE CREWMAN KILLED, 5 HURT IN DERAILMENT

LANDOVER, Md. (AP)—One man was killed and five others injured early today when two Pennsylvania Railroad locomotives, each pulling a string of freight cars, collided.

An explosion followed by a spectacular fire took place some three hours after the wreck when gas, spewing from a break in a tank car ignited. No one was injured in the blast. The fire was brought quickly under control.

The dead man was identified as Harry Wayne Edwards, 48, Oxford, Md., engineer on a yard locomotive which was shifting a string of 18 cars.

The second train was an 88-car freight, southbound from New York to Washington.

The site of the collision is at the intersection of U.S. Route 50 and State Road 202 in Cheverly, Md. The railroad line at that point parallels a four-lane highway leading to nearby Washington, D.C.

Railroad officials said at least 26 freight cars had gone off the rails. At least 15 were piled up at the point of collision.

The whole area was blocked off for a time on account of a break in one reported to be loaded with liquid nitrogen which police believed might be explosive. The ban was lifted when Army chemical experts advised the chemical can be ignited only under rare conditions.

Firemen still trained hoses on rings of fire around the main wreckage four hours after the wreck, which occurred about 3:50 a.m.

The site is about a mile from the District of Columbia line and some five miles south of the University of Maryland campus at College Park.

LOCAL STUDIO GIVEN HONOR

C. Robert Ziegler, owner and operator of the Ziegler Studio, W. Middle St., was named as "Professional Photographer of the Year" by the Penn Central Professional Photographers Association of Pennsylvania at its annual spring meeting at the Green Terrace, Lebanon, Wedesday.

A plaque was awarded to Ziegler "in recognition of meritorious service and achievements dedicated to the association and to the profession of photography" by President Ronald W. Sheaffer, Carlisle.

Ziegler also received four ribbons in the annual print competition; two were won in the men's division, one in the child's and one in the commercial division.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Zeltsman, Morris Plains, N. J., were the guest speakers. Mr. Zeltsman, master photographer, spoke on "Direct Color in the Studio" while Mrs. Zeltsman spoke on "Color Negative and Print Retouching." The group was entertained in the evening by the "Fabulous Franki DiNunzio" floor show.

Mr. and Mrs. Ziegler and studio staff member, Larry Kinneman, Hanover, attended the convention. About 75 attended.

Offers $500,000 To Kennedy Library

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Broadcasting Co. has offered to donate $500,000 to the Kennedy Memorial Library for the rights to televise a game between the champions of the National Football League and the American Football League next January.

The 14-team NFL is expected to turn down the offer.

The eight-team AFL, which begins its fifth year of play this fall, has challenged for such a game.

NBC made the offer in telegrams to the commissioners of the rival leagues.

Memorial Services In Taneytown

Memorial Day services will be observed in Taneytown May 30 under the sponsorship of the Hesson-Snider American Legion Post following a parade which will form at 12:30 o'clock on Union Town Road near Taney Inn and will move toward Memorial Park at 1 o'clock.

John O. Chilcote, special assistant for Veterans' Affairs, and a combat veteran of World War II, will be the guest speaker. Although confined to a wheel chair, he has been active in community affairs and is a past department commander of the Maryland American Legion and a past alternate national executive committeeman.

TO PRESENT COMEDY

The Senior Class of Taneytown High School will present a three-act comedy Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the annual class night program in the high school auditorium. Travis Dutterer, class president, will act as master of ceremonies and will present the class gift to the school.

BREAK 2 SAFES TO STEAL $65

Burglars took two safes into cold storage early this morning at the Rice Fruit Packing Co. near Gardners, broke them open and fled with $65.

State police said the thieves broke a rear door to enter the office of Arthur Rice. They removed a safe after ransacking the office where they found nothing, broke open the safe found it empty.

The burglars then broke a door to the bookkeepers' room which they ransacked and found nothing. They removed the safe into another cold storage section battered it open and found the cash.

The $65 loot compared with a burglary at the plant February 12 when $28 was stolen from a cash register and $50 from a safe in the bookkeeper's office.

SAW ABORIGINEES

She said that within 10 years, however, there will probably be few pure Polynesians because of intermarriage with the Chinese.

In New Zealand, Dr. Cockerille was impressed with the education of the children in the schools through creative activities. In Samoa, she found little change occurs, since the people live a relaxed do-as-you-please life.

On one island, she observed the Black Malayenese, frizzy-haired and almost purple skinned who are powerful workers but are controlled by people of India who have migrated there.

She saw the Australian aborigines, who are the last remnants of the stone age. These people live on the desert and hunt with a boomerang. Since there is so little water available, she said the have developed a sixth sense concerning rain.

WHOLE NEW CULTURE

Although she indicated that there is no record of the number of people living in "Oceana," the speaker noted the complete integration of races which exists everywhere in all areas of life, school and government. "The entire area is not a melting pot of people but they are accepting differences and arriving at a whole new culture with a great variety of people living and building together," she said.

She concluded by quoting James Michener as saying that the South Pacific is not East or West but is its own culture.

Mrs. Van Cleve Lott was in charge of the hostess committee. The tables were decorated with rose trees and hurricane lamps. Each place was marked with a rose.

Mrs. Harold Dunkelberger gave the invocation.

Police Neutrality Is MECO Strike Aim

Gettysburg borough police are under instructions to "be courteous to both sides" in the current strike at thee Metropolitan Edison Co.

According to the borough police call sheet, Clyde Baumgardner, Gettysburg R. 3, a picket on duty at the local Metropolitan Edison Co. office, called police Wednesday afternoon at 2:15 to ask if the pickets could prevent MECO trucks from entering and leaving the office area. Chief Jack Barlett told the picket to avoid any attempts at stopping the trucks. At the same time he instructed his officers, according to the police call sheet, to "be impartial. Treat them all alike. Be courteous to both sides and do the best you can to see that no trouble occurs."

The police call sheet shows that this morning, William Lentz, MECO manager, called police when, he claimed, pickets would not allow him to take a car out of the garage to go for mail Borough policemen went to the scene and remaind there until Lentz drove to the post office for mail and returned the car to the garage.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and The Gettysburg Times

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Local Sailor Is In N.Y. Naval Hospital: S 1-C Max Sherman, 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman, East Middle street, is a patient in a naval hospital in New York city, according to information received by his parents this morning.

Young Sherman is suffering from an injured left shoulder, a recurrence of an old injury sustained while playing football for Gettysburg high school. He injured the shoulder aboard ship where he is a member of an armed guard gun crew. He has made three Atlantic crossings since joining the Navy in July, 1943.

• • •

Pvt. John Nary In Australian Hospital: Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Nary, McKnightstown, have received word their son, Pvt. John C. Nary, is a patient in a hospital in Australia as the result of a recent operation. The cause of the operation is not known.

Pvt. Nary is with an Engineers outfit and has served six months in New Guinea and eight months on another island in the southwest Pacific.

Greyhound Driver Given Safety Award: Paul C. Myers, 24 Baltimore street, has been notified that he has won the safety award from the Pennsylvania Greyhound Lines, for having driven a passenger bus for the ten successive years without having an accident of any kind. M. Myers will receive an engraved gold 21-jewel Hamilton watch and a complete new uniform. He is the first driver out of Gettysburg station to be so honored.

May 8 was the date of completion of this perfect record. During the ten years he has driven 600,000 miles. His run covered the highway between Gettysburg and Pittsburgh for the most part. For six years prior to his becoming a passenger bus driver, he worked in a factory at Detroit as a test driver.

• • •

Teacher Enrolls In Maritime Service: Robert D. Fidler, a member of the teaching staff at Gettysburg high school, was recently enrolled in the U.S. Maritime Service at Baltimore.

He will undergo a training period of from three to seven months at a training station after which he will be assigned to active duty.

Mr. Fidler expects to begin training in June.

"Wacky" Hats, Sad Yarns Delight Soroptimists: The May dinner of the Soroptimist club was held at the Green Parrot tea room, Emmitsburg, Tuesday evening with 21 present. Members were required to wear old or comical hats and tell their most embarrassing experience.

Four guests, Mrs. Fred Faber, Miss Esther Tipton, Miss Sarah Jane Maust and Miss Elizabeth Daley, served as judges and awarded prizes to Mrs. Elizabeth Hennig for a "flower garden hat"; Mrs. Wilmer Bream for a creation of the Coolidge era; Mrs. David Blocher for an original model called "A Snake in the Garden of Eden"; and Mrs. Guyon E. Buehler for a collander trimmed with tulle and cat-o-nine tails.

Mrs. Blochef's experience given in verse and won the prize for the best.

During the evening members were required to don comic attire and angle for prizes in a fish pond. A large straw garden hat was presented to the retiring president, Mrs. Blocher. Special observance was made of the birthdays of two members, Mrs. Wayne Keet and Mrs. Frederick E. Griest.

The committee comprised Miss Florence Basehoar, Miss Julia Peters, Mrs. Buehler and Mrs. Clyde Daley.

The Houston Colts were the only National League team to switch training sites this spring. The Colts trained in Arizona last year; in Florida this spring.

Today's Talk

NOURISHMENT

Many of the most significant things in life we give little or no notice to. For example: We have to have fresh breath, which means air, every few seconds. Then we have to put food into our body, also water. These are the elementary essentials to life.

Every growing thing has to have nourishment. The plant, the flower, the tree, all take nourishment from the ground and from the air. And the sun stimulates their growth. The very same rules that apply in nature, to apply to man.

There is much more to be nourished in man, however, than in the case of any inanimate creation. Man's body, his mind, his heart, and his spirit must be nourished. He can be only a half-nourished man, whose nature has known but a part of this nourishment.

It is very easy to complain and to blame someone else for our lack of nourishment, but we are free agents and it is expected of us that we look after our own needs and fulfill them. It is the privilege of each one of us to develop our own personality, feeding it and nourishing it with a love of beauty, of music, of literature, of people, and of everything that touches the senses, or which adds to our enjoyment of life.

When nourishment is cut off from any part of our nature, a light goes out somewhere. You have know the highly talented who, with the years, neglected to nourish his gifts, and so allowed something precious of himself to slip away.

The enriched mind gives out nourishment to every other mind that it contacts. There's the great joy of being nourished. It enables us to nourish others. There is no limit to the nourishment of the mind. Every worthwhile book has mental food between its covers. And many a one nourishes the spirit as well.

We humans are just like the birds, when we are well nourished. We are happy — we sing and rejoice in our good fortune.

Just Folks

THE VERY PLEASANT MAN

He thought by pleasing people he could walk an easy way,
And so a word which might offend never dared to say
And when there rose an argument of any consequence
Instead of taking sides he chose to sit upon the fence.
When asked for his opinion since in peace he wished to live
He always answered with a smirk that he had none to give.
While other men became embroiled in fights o'er right and wrong
He kept a grin upon his face for all who came along

But life is not so simple. Even lap dogs sometimes growl.
Though smiles are often welcomed there are times a man should scowl.
Though courtesy's a virtue and 'tis good to be polite
There's many a grim occasion when a man should start a fight.
He hoped to keep from trouble, but he found to his dismay
Life daily gave him burdens which he couldn't smile away
And seeking all men's friendship he discovered at the end
Most folks prefer an honest foe to such a doubtful friend.

LHS YEARBOOK DISTRIBUTED TO STUDENTS

"The 1964 Littonian," published by the Senior Class of Littlestown High School, was distributed recently. The yearbook features the school colors, with a blue hardback cover bearing gold lettering and the school seal.

The foreword by the Class of '64 states that "Knowledge is the Key to Happiness." The edition is dedicated to the citizens of the community "for their guidance and service through the years."

The first section of the yearbook is devoted to the faculty. There are individual pictures and messages from Paul E. King, supervising principal of the Littlestown Jointure; Frank E. Basehoar, high school principal; Lloyd L. Stavely, administrative assistant; John H. Riley, elementary principal. There are individual photos of the faculty members and education of each; group pictures of the secretaries, custodians and cooks.

GROUP PICTURES

The Seniors are featured in the second part of the edition. A page is given to Miss Randi Myrvang, ICYE student from Larvik, Norway, who attended LHS for the 1963-64 school year. There are individual photographs of each Senior accompanied with a thumbnail sketch and activities list of each. The class history is included and candid shots. A picture of the class officers shows: Willie Houston, president; Lowry Close, vice president; Jean Gentzler, secretary; Terry Arbogast, treasurer, and Ann Kroh, historian.

There are group pictures of the underclassmen, Grades Seven through 11; separate class officers and class histories.

Athletics is the theme of the next section. There are photographs of the Thunderbolts, coaches, lettermen, action shots and individuals of the Senior Thunderbolts. The varsity basketball players and lettermen, junior varsity, action snaps, baseball team and Seniors, bowling, wrestling, track, junior high basketball, junior high football, senior high and junior high cheerleaders are seen in group photos.

The last part of "The Littonian" includes pictures of the Senior Band, Senior members and majorettes, Junior Band, majorettes, senior chorus, junior chorus, nature club, FHA, library club, Littonian, fishing club, dramatics club, business club, future nurses club, chess club, student council, Littonian Echo, National Honor Society, varsity club, National Tespian Society, Junior-Senior Prom, vignettes from the Battle of Gettysburg centennial, Christmas dance, dramatics club play, Senior Class play, and miscellaneous scenes.

The yearbook concludes with lists of sponsors, patrons, benefactors and contributors; also the Alma Mater.

Summer Activities For Cubs Planned

The den mothers and officers of Cub Pack No. 84 made plans for summer activities of the pack at a meeting on Monday evening held at the home of Cubmaster Alvah H. Stonesifer Jr., S. Queen St. Extd. It was announced that the Cubs and their families are invited to attend part of the Black Walnut camporee on Saturday from 3 to 10 a.m. at the Tipon farm near Biglerville. There will be games and a picnic supper, and a campfire program.

The Cubs will participate in the community Memorial Day parade next Friday, May 29, meeting, in uniform, at the Maple Avenue School at 6:30 p.m. There will be a Charter Day presentation and awards ceremony at the Littlestown Fish and Game Farm, near town, on Sunday, June 14 at 2 p.m.

The annual overnight hike was scheduled for Friday, July 24. The boys will leave at 6 p.m. from the Community Center and hike to the Fish and Game Farm, where they will camp out over night. Breakfast will be served after which camp will break and the Cubs will return to town about 10 a.m. on Saturday.

The pack family picnic and field day will be held at the McSherry Little League Field on Sunday, August 16, at 2 p.m. Further details will be announced later.

are judged according to their devotion to that priesthood. Confident that Monsignor Sheridan will intercede for us again, as he did so often in his earthly life, we pray simply 'may be rest in peace.'"

In the sanctuary were many members of the Catholic hierachy including the Most Rev. Michael W. Hyle, bishop of Wilmington, Del.; the Most Rev. T. Austin Murphy, auxiliary bishop, Baltimore; the Most Rev. William J. McDonald and the Most Rev. John S. Spence, auxiliary bishops, Washington, D.C.

Among the distinguished guests were many Catholic and non-Catholic laymen and alumni of the college.

Among the dignitaries at the Masses were U.S. Senator Glenn Beall (Md.), Maryland's Attorney General Thomas Finan and U. S. Congressman Charles McC. Mathias Jr.

BURIAL ON MOUNT

Interment was made in the college cemetery on the mountain with Rt. Rev. Robert R. Kline performing the commitment rites.

The pallbearers were the senior members of the lay faculty: Professors Dominic G. Greco, John J. Dillon Jr., John W. Richards, Robert T. Marshall, Robert J. Henke and Gerald C. Orosz.

Honorary pallbearers were the president of the student body and the presidents of the four college classes, the president of the National Alumni Association and other members of the faculty.

WIRE FROM GOVERNOR

Gov. J. Millard Tawes of Maryland sent the following telegram to the Rt. Rev. Robert R. Kline, president of the college:

"I was deeply saddened by the news of the death of Msgr. John Sheridan. The state of Maryland has lost an illustrious educator and I have lost a close personal friend. Please accept for yourself and for all who mourn with you my heartfelt sympathy."

Asecial Mass was held at 9:45 o'clock this morning for members of the student body. Rev. Robert H. Wharton, dean of Freshmen at the college, was the celebrant.

A native of Troy, N.Y., Monsignar Sheridan is survived by a nephew, William H. Sheridan, Fairfax, Va., and four nieces, Mrs. Agnes Bordeman, Manhasset, N.Y.; Mrs. Elizabeth Folan, Albany, N.Y.; Mrs. Margann Ranney, Vienna, Va., and Miss Marian Sheridan, Troy, N.Y.

The body rested in the college chapel from 4 p.m. Wednesday until today's Mass.

Episcopalians To Back Prayer Ban

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—Delegates to the annual convention of the Harrisburg Diocese of the Protestant Episcopal Church have voted to support the U.S. Supreme Court ban on required Bible reading and prayers in public schools.

In other resolutions adopted at the convention Wednesday, the delegates:

— Voted to support the civil rights movement;

— Voted against a proposed increase in public assistance grants in Pennsylvania.

The Rev. John Heistand, bishop of the Harrisburg Diocese, said the resolution calling for increased public assistance grants would be studied in committee and will come up again at the clergymen's next convention, in Harrisburg, next May.

The delegates also adopted a budget of $240,245 for the next fiscal year.

ZIP CODE REBEL INCURS WRATH OF AIR FORCE

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Air Force is threatening to give the boot to a reserve captain for failing to supply his postal ZIP code number.

"It's the work of "bureaucratic buffoons", says Rep. F. Edward Hebert, D-La.

Hebert released correspondence from the captain, a Roman Catholic chaplain from New Orleans. But Hebert withheld his name.

The captain wrote Hebert last month that he had received a letter from the Air Force notifying him that he had twice been asked for his ZIP code number and that if he did not supply it within 30 days "we propose to take action. . ."

Hebert replied "had I not been dealing with so many bureaucratic buffoons during my 24 years in Congress, I would have been apoplectic over the example you sent me."

AIR FORCE PERSISTS

But, suggested Hebert, maybe the whole matter would quietly blow over.

It didn't.

In a letter received Wednesday, Hebert said, the captain wrote that he had been informed an Air Force board is to convene June 22 "to consider my discharge for failing to send my ZIP code number."

The captain continued:

"How serious my negligence is, I do not know. Is it akin to desertion? What will be my punishment? Exile, perhaps, to abandoned Alcatraz? With a BCD (bad conduct discharge) how could I give you my vote?

FIRST ZIP CASUALTY

"History may record me as the first ZIP code casualty."

Hebert's office said today there was nothing in the captain's letters to show why he failed to provide the five-digit number at the end of his address.

But the Air Force's letters apparently had no trouble reaching the captain, ZIP code or not.

Hebert's office said the matter is being taken up with Air Force officials.

Seven Killed By Shotgun Blasts

NASSAU, Bahamas (AP)—Seven persons were killed by shotgun blasts Wednesday night and six other persons were wounded, Nassau police reported today.

Supt. Stanley Moir declined to disclose the identity of a man he said was being held for investigation into the mass shootings. No charge was placed, he said.

Further details were unavailable.

Lawyers Defend Southern Rights

NEW YORK (AP)—A "lawyers corps" has been formed to defend civil rights demonstrators in the South this summer.

Seven major civil rights groups announced Wednesday the formation of the Lawyers Constitutional Defense Committee. A spokesman said 60 volunteers will spend at least two weeks each in Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana and Florida, serving without pay.

RICK WISE TO MEET GIANTS

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — "These kids are good and they know it," says Manager Gene Mauch of his Philadelphia Phillies, who've been trading first place in the National League back and forth with the San Francisco Giants.

After losing the first game of this week's series 3-0, the Phils came back powered by rookie Richie Allen, Johnny Callison and Wes Covington, and bombed the Giants 7-2 in the second.

As a surprise for today's finale of the three-game set Mauch nominated 19-year-old righthander Rick Wise as his starting pitcher.

"You haven't heard of him, but you will," declared Mauch. A few eyebrows were raised at the nomination of a youngster to face Giants' left-hander Bob Hendley in another game deciding which team holds first place.

San Francisco Manager Alvin Dart isn't unaware of the pennant threat posed by the youthful Phils.

"When they got Jim Bunning last winter, I knew they'd be tough," said Dark. "And that was before I knew anything about Richie Allen."

The program concluded with a tea given for the graduating girls and their mothers by the girls remaining in the troop, assisted by Mrs. John Bishop, Mrs. Robert Codori and Linda Reber.

PROVIDE TAPE MESSAGE FOR TOURIST TOUR

National Park Superintendent Kittridge Wing today announced that the park now has a talking interpretive station in Meade's Headquarters. "The visitor by merely pressing a button can hear the story of the Leister House — known as Meade's Headquarters — and the part it played in the battle. Several more of these tape-recorded messages will go into place elsewhere on the field and will add a great deal to visitor enjoyment," he said.

Chief Historian Harry Pfanz said the interpretive station at Meade's Headquarters, is the newest addition to the High Water Mark walking tour. "Since its introduction two years ago, the walking tour has proved very popular with visitors and local people alike. The tour begins at the upper entrance of the Visitor Center and includes stops at Meade's Headquarters, Meade's statue, the Angle where Pickett's Charge broke, the Copse of Trees and many other monuments and markers.

"The walking tour is well marked and can be taken any time, even after the Visitor Center closes. There is a booklet on sale in the center that compliments and enriches the tour but even this is not really needed to enjoy and understand this walk into history.

"I would encourage all local people who have not taken this walk to do so at their leisure. I believe they will find it both a satisfying and delightful experience."

TO BORROW MILLIONS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)— The Delaware River Port Authority has voted to borrow $37.5 million from 10 banks to start financing its proposed $62 million high-speed line from Philadelphia to Krikwood, N. J. The loan is for four years, but the authority said it hopes to pay it off in 25 months. Interest for the first 25 months is 2.65 per cent, rising eventually to 3.15 per cent for the rest of the loan.

Phillies Beat Giants To Regain NL Lead; 3 Phil HomersAid;CardsMoveUp

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

"It can't go on," said Willie Mays.

He's right. One of these days he's got to get a hit.

Mays made the prediction less than two weeks ago when he was smacking the ball at a .478 clip, but it's just as apt now with Willie struggling to break out of a deep slump that has shriveled his average to .393.

Mays went hitless for the fifth straight game and Juan Marichal had his 12-game victory string snapped Wednesday as the San Francisco Giants lost to Philadelphia 7-2 and tumbled into second place behind the National league-leading Phillies.

CALLISON 5 FOR 5

Mays' 0-for-3 performance dropped him under the .400 mark for the first time since the opening days of the season and left him with a string of 10 hitless trips to the plate. In the last nine games, Mays is only 3-for-27, a .111 clip that has whacked 85 points off his batting average.

John Callison of the Phillies added to his average with a 5-for-5 performance, stroking a homer and four singles, driving in three runs and scoring twice as the Phillies handed Marichal his first defeat since Aug. 30, 1963, and left the Giant ace with a 6-1 record.

Meanwhile, the St. Louis Cardinals moved to within one game of first place by edging the Chicago Cubs 1-0 behind Bob Gibson's four-hit, 12-strikeout pitching.

SLAM BY TORRE

Elsewhere, Joe Torre hit a grand-slam homer and drove in five runs in Milwaukee's 7-3 victory over Cincinnati, the Los Angeles Dodgers defeated the New York Mets 4-1 and Pittsburgh nipped Houston 4-3.

The Phillies moved ahead 3-1 in the fifth, chasing Marichal when rookie Richie Allen hit a solo homer and Wes Covington connected with one on. Art Mahaffey started for Philadelphia but Jack Baldschun came on in the bottom of the fifth when the Giants had one run in and the bases loaded. A spectacular fielding play by Bobby Wine on Jim Harts shot up the middle started a threat-ending doubleplay.

Gibson, now 4-0, retired the last 17 men in order and won his duel with the Cubs' Larry Jackson when consecutive singles by Dick Groat, Ken Boyer and Bill White brought in the Cardinal run in the eighth inning. Jackson, 5-3 and a winner against his former teammates only once in seven decisions, had allowed only five hits before the decisive trio.

DODGERS BEAT METS

Eddie Mathews put the Braves ahead to stay, doubling Frank Bolling home for a 3-2 lead in the seventh. Torre, who singled home a run in the first, put the finishing touches on by hitting his grand slam in the ninth. Frank Robinson hit his seventh homer for the Reds, temporarily tying the game 2-2 in the fourth inning.

Nick Willhite and Ron Perranoski combined on a six-hitter for the Dodgers, Willhite allowing the Mets only run in the third on two errors sandwiched around Dick Smith's single. That tied the score 1-1. The Dodgers regained the lead in the fourth when Frank Howard walked, took second on a wild pickoff attempt and scored on Doug Camilli's single. A two-run eighth put it out of reach.

Bob Veale and Al McBean collaborated on a five-hitter for the Pirates. The Colts scored their three runs with only one hit, Walt Bond hitting a two-run homer in the seventh after an error and the Colts scoring again in the eighth on two walks and an error. Jerry Lynch, playing for the injured Roberto Clemente, homered for Pittsburgh.

PIAA EVENTS THIS WEEKEND AT PENN STATE

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa., (AP)—Hundreds of schoolboy athletes will converge on Penn State University this weekend for the annual PIAA tennis, golf and track championships.

Only a handful of the 1963 winners will be back to defend their titles.

Leading the array of defending champions is Tom Hyndman of Lower Moreland High School who captured the state's golf crown in 1963 with a 54-hole total of 220.

WIDE OPEN COMPETITION

Tennis competition is wide open now that graduation has ended the three-year reign of Mount Lebanon's Jack Waltz, a freshman at Yale.

The 1963 doubles champs, Bob Clarke and Joe Downie of Beaver Falls. also will be among the missing.

A total of 205 schools will be represented in the Class A and B track and field events.

Ron Dillard of Ford City will be looking for repeats in both the 220 and 440-yard dashes in Class A competition, while Bill Edgar of Upper Darby will defend his 120-yard high hurdles crown.

Class B will feature a pair of record breakers from last year —Sam Bair of Scottdale and Ron Smith of Columbia. Bair ran the half-mile in 1:57.5 last year while Smith posted a new mark of 14.9 seconds in the 120 high hurdles.

Four of last year's top 10 will provide the challenge in this year's golf competition including Gary Pollock of Erie Tech, Bob Kotz of Pennsbury, Steve Miller of Hershey and Barry Fies of Fleetwood.

GOLF LEAGUE GIVES TROPHY

The Susquehanna Golf League championship trophy was presented to Bishop McDevitt Wednesday evening during a dinner meeting at the Country Side Inn, Mechanicsburg R. 2.

Robert Bostic of Northern, circuit secretary-treasurer, awarded the trophy to Tony Cenugel, Crusader head coach. McDevitt won the crown on a 9-1 league record.

The league also awarded a sportsmanship trophy and named East Pennsboro's Bob Markley as the recipient.

A schedule for 1965 was approved which includes a medal play tournament to be held April 30, at Range End Country Club.

Reed Ernest of Camp Hill, and Bostic, were re-elected as president and secretary-treasurer.

Gettysburg High School was represented at the meeting by George Forney and Pat Kelly.

BOOG POWELL HOMER PUTS BIRDS NEAR TOP

Associated Press Sports Writer

Boog go Boom!

That might sound like baby talk, but it's carried the Baltimore Orioles into a virtual tie for first place in the American League.

Boog is John Powell, the Orioles' 22-year-old left fielder whose bat has been booming recently. He clouted a two-run homer Wednesday night in Baltimore's 8-3 triumph over Kansas City.

The victory put the Orioles even in games but 27 percentage points behind the Chicago White Sox, who were idle Wednesday.

.435 CLIP AT BAT

In his last eight games, Powell has slugged five homers, knocked in 12 runs and has batted at a .435 clip. His surge has raised his average 69 points to .233. His home run total is seven his RBI mark 23.

Baltimore has won six of the eight games and 10 of the last 13.

Powell's two-run homer in the latest victory climaxed a five-run rally in the fifth and helped Milt Pappas to his third straight victory after two defeats.

John Kennedy and Harmon Killebrew also were batting stars in the AL Wednesday. Kennedy smashed two home runs and a single as Washington trounced Detroit 10-3. Killebrew hit his 10th and 11th homers in Minnesota's 7-4 victory over New York. Boston nipped Los Angeles 4-3 in the other game.

Pappas limited the Athletics to five hits while his mates pounded Diego Segui and Jack Aker. Brooks Robinson drove in three runs, two with a double in the fifth when the Orioles chased Segui. The double and Powell's homer were off Aker.

Luis Aparicio stole three bases for the Orioles, giving him 17 in 20 attempts.

H/LTED TIGERS

Kennedy's hitting helped halt Detroit's four - game winning streak. He hit a homer in the first and another in the fifth. He singled across a run in the eighth when three Tiger errors helped the Senators to five runs. Dick Phillips contributed two RBI to Washington's attack.

Bill Freehan and George Thomas slammed homers in the seventh for the Tigers off Claude Osteen, who evened his record at 3-3.

Killebrew took the league lead in home runs with his pair. His first blast came with one aboard in the Twins' five-run first inning against Ralph Terry. He connected again in the eighth.

OLIVA HOMER

Tony Oliva also clouted a two-run homer in the first, helping Camilo Pascual to his fifth triumph against two defeats. Pascual held the Yankees to two runs until Johnny Blanchard smacked a two-run homer in the ninth.

Boston scored two runs in the seventh for its victory over Los Angeles. Ed Bressoud's single drove in Roman Mejias with the deciding run after Dalton Jones doubled home Bob Tillman with the tying run.

The Angels had taken a 3-2 lead in their seventh on Billy Moran's triple and pinch hitter Bob Rodgers' single.

TV MONEY TO AID PENSIONS

NEW YORK (AP)—The record $1.8-million television income from the 1964 championship game of the National Football League will extend pension benefits to 110 retired veterans, add coaches, trainers and equipment men to the pension fund, and set up record winning and losing shares.

Commissioner Pete Rozelle announced the breakdown on the television income Wednesday at the league's spring meeting.

Insurance benefits also will be increased with each player getting a $20,000 life insurance policy and a $20,000 accidental death policy. Coaches, trainers and equipment men also are included.

Rozelle estimated the winning share in the championship game would be about $7,000 and the losing share about $5,000. Last year the Chicago Bears got just short of $6,000 and the New York Giants about $4,000.

Of the $1.8 million from TV (CBs), $900,000 goes into benefits of which $525,000 is the player pension fund and $375,000 to the pension for coaches and other club employes. The league gets $180,000 and the remaining $720,000 goes into the game pool.

COLTS TAKE DON LARSEN

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Big Don Larsen, a hero when he pitched a perfect World Series game for the New York Yankees, has moved again, this time for only the $20,000 waiver price.

The San Francisco Giants announced Wednesday they asked waivers on the 34-year-old right-hander and the Houston Colts claimed him.

Larsen hurled the first no-hit, no-run game in World Series history. He beat Brooklyn 2-0 Oct. 8, 1956, and not a Dodger reached base.

Exactly six years later in the same Yankee Stadium, Larsen beat the Yanks in relief while hurling for the Giants in the 1962 series.

He's also pitched for St. Louis-Baltimore, Kansas City and Chicago of the American League.

BIGLER TOPS BERMUDIAN IN SNAPPY GAME

All of the scoring came in the fifth inning as Biglerville High nipped Bermudian Springs 3-2 in a well-played county league game Wednesday at York Springs.

In the top of the fifth Dick Hartman secured the first hit off Ed Rodrock when he opened with a triple. After Dick Fair grounded out, Wayne Crum squeezed in Hartman on a bunt. Jim Taylor lofted to center but Don Heckman walked and both Crum and Heckman scored on Bobby Bream's single. Bill Smyers relieved Rodrock and retired Rod Guise for the final out.

Bermudian retaliated immediately with two runs. Grafton Wagner led off with a double and stole third base. Rodrock walked and Ronnie Tate ran for him. Tate raced to second base on a steal but on the return throw to the plate Wagner was cut down. Al Hoke and Jim Harbold followed with singles to account for the runs.

The defeat marked the close of the season for Bermudian who wound up with an overall 3-13 record. Biglerville, 4-5, plays its final game at Fairfield today.

WILL PROPOSE 3-GAME AFL GRID PLAYOFF

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A New Orleans sportsman whose selling points are warm Southern weather and January television exposure will propose a three-game championship playoff to American Football League owners today.

The proposal will be made by Dave Dixon, a real estate man who is president of the New Orleans Professional Football Club Inc., a group seeking post-season and pre-season games in New Orleans until a pro franchise can be obtained in either the AFL or National Football League.

Dixon was invited by the AFL owners to their meeting to discuss another topic—a plan to have the AFL all-star game in New Orleans in the Sugar Bowl instead of San Diego where it has been established.

Under Dixons' playoff plan the first game would be in the league city that would get it under present rules. The Eastern and Western Division champs now alternate as hosts. The second game—and third if needed—would both be in New Orleans. Dixon discussed the plan Wednesday.

"The addition of New Orleans and Atlanta would balance it five-five and make a Southern January schedule a real possibility."

Pa. Jobless Pay Claims On Decline

HARRISBURG (AP) —Claims for unemployment compensation were on the decline again last week, according to the Bureau of Employment Security.

Continued claims totaled 129,404, a drop of 4,065 from the previous week, the bureau said in its weekly survey issued Wednesday. New claims totaled 18,646, or 1,605 less than the number filed during the previous week.

The bureau attributed the decline to recalls in the construction, stone-clay-glass and apparel industries.

U. S. OLYMPIC BOXING TEAM "GOOD, SOLID"

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The coach of the American Olympic boxing team doesn't want to go out on a limb until he sees what other nations have to offer but he believes "we have a good, solid team."

The 10-man team determined by the three-day Olympic Trials which ended Wednesday night, includes Buster Mathis, the 6-foot-3, 295-pound, 19-year-old giant from Grand Rapids, Mich.

Buster, known also as Little Big Daddy, delighted most of a crowd of 1,500 in the Singer Bowl at the World's Fair by outspeeding and outpointing Joe Frazier, the 195-pound knockout artist from Philadelphia, in the heavyweight wind-up of a rousing card of 10 finals.

FIRST-RATE TEAM

"He's real fast for a big man," said M. Sgt. Freddie Lenn of the Camp Pendleton Marines, who will coach the Tokyo-bound boxers. "He makes good moves and jabs well. He's a good boy."

Competent observers, including pro managers Cus D'Amato and Gil Clancy, feel that Uncle Sam has a first-rate team.

The other nine winners were flyweight Bob Carmody, 25, of Fort Campbell, Ky., and Brooklyn; bantamweight Lou Johnson, 25, of Bolling AFB and Portland, Ore.; featherweight Charley Brown, 25, of the Camp Pendleton Marines and Cincinnati; lightweight Ron Harris, 17, of Detroit; light welterweight Charley Ellis, 20, of the Army's Eighth Division and Louisville; welterweight Maurice Frilot, 23, of Camp Pendleton and Denver; light middleweight Toby Gibson, 21, of Spokane, Wash.; middleweight Jim Rosette, 26, a Navy airman from San Diego; and light heavyweight Harley Cooper, 29, of the Offutt AFB, Omaha.

The Charleston Indians defeated the Springfield Giants twice Wednesday, in two seven-inning games, and opened up a three-game lead in the Eastern League.

Charleston took the first by a 7-6 count and the second, 3-1, as Reading bounced York 9-3, in the only other game played.

Williamsport at Elmira were postponed because of cold weather.

At Reading, York outhit the Red Sox 11-10, but Reading made better use of their blows off four York hurlers.

Dave Busby (1-1) got the win, while George Angel (2-3) took the loss.

MUSIAL WOULD GO TO COLLEGE BEFORE CAREER

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP) — If Stan Musial had it to do all over again, he would go to college before he played professional baseball.

Musial said he hated to think what would have happened to him if he had failed to make the grade in baseball. The former St. Louis Cardinal great made these observations and many others in his book "Stan Musial" as told to Bob Broeg, sports editor of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

The retired star, now director of President Johnson's physical fitness program, revealed how he moved from $65 a month in Class D to a $100,000 a year salary with the Cardinals. He told how he learned a lesson in negotiation when he pointed out to Sam Breadon he would have to "play harder" because Terry Moore and Enos Slaughter were in service in 1943.

Owner Breadon reprimanded him by saying, "I thought you were the kind of ball player who gave your all in every game." The lesson stuck with Musial.

The shock of the trade that sent Enos Slaughter from the Cards to the New York Yankees just before the 1954 season was reviewed. Musial told how he and Slaughter both cried on a street corner.

Stan recalled how he came close to finishing his career with the Pittsburgh Pirates but finally balked at asking the Cards to give him his unconditional release in 1960 just before the trading deadline.

Picking his personal all-star team, Musial rated teammate Red Schoendienst over Jackie Robinson for second base and Pee Wee Reese of the Dodgers over teammate Marty Marion for shortstop. He rated Willie Mays and Joe DiMaggio as the perfect ball players, the best he ever saw but called Ted Williams the best hitter of his time. He doubted that anyone would hit .400 again.

Broeg caught the spirit of Musial and his enthusiasm for baseball as he wound up the story with a typical Musial quote: "I hope I've given nearly as much as I've gotten from it (baseball)."

Musmanno And Miss Blatt In Virtual Tie After 42nd Ward Vote Check In Phila.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Genevieve Blatt, state secretary of internal affairs, and Justice Michael A. Musmanno, of the State Supreme Court, were in a virtual tie today in their contest for the U. S. Democratic senatorial nomination after a recheck of votes in Philadelphia's 42nd Ward.

The court-ordered recheck showed errors had been made in transferring the machine count to tally sheets.

The recount showed Miss Blatt had not been given credit on the tally sheets for some votes registered on the machine and that Musmanno had been given credit for more ballots than he had received in the machine count.

SHE GAINS 172

The difference resulted in a net gain of 172 votes for Miss Blatt.

Errors were first found in five divisions of the ward, giving Miss Blatt a gain of 72 votes and Musmanno a loss of 72 others. Because of these errors, County Commissioner Maurice Osser ordered all machines in the ward rechecked.

In one other ward division, the recheck turned up another 28-vote error. The Blatt-Musmanno breakdown of this figure was not given by the Board of Elections.

CHALLENGGE ABSENTEES

A judge had initially ordered the machines rechecked on a motion by Miss Blatt's attorneys.

Besides the machine errors, Miss Blatt's supporters are challenging 544 absentee ballots in Philadelphia. The State Supreme Court hears argument on their legality in its opening session in Harrisburg on Monday.

Miss Blatt's attorneys already have filed suit in Dauphin County Court challenging the election in the event Musmanno is declared the winner.

Michael Byrnes, administrative assistant for U. S. Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., who is supporting Miss Blatt, indicated the Board of Elections will be asked to open machines in other wards.

TAKE COURT ACTION

Attorneys for Musmanno, meanwhile, filed an appeal in Common Pleas Court seeking a reversal of a County Board of Elections decision which denied them the right to count as legal votes marks in blank spaces beneath the names of candidates in the senatorial contest.

The complete and official vote in 63 counties gives Miss Blatt 365,788 votes to 286,292 votes for Musmanno. The State Elections Bureau has certified the tally in 51 counties so far.

The unofficial vote in the remaining counties:

Philadelphia — Blatt 67,870, Musmanno 23,921 (422 absentee ballots challenged)

Washington — Blatt 16,430, Musmanno 19,996 (28 absentee ballots challenged)

Somerset—Blatt 3,949, Musmanno 2,227.

WON PULITZER HONOR FOR HIS WAR ON "KKK"

By RICHARD C. BAYER

LUMBERTON, N.C. (AP)—In 1953, Willard Cole won a Pulitzer Prize for a public crusade against Ku Klux Klan terrorists. Today he is waging a personal battle against partial paralysis.

Cole was editor of the semiweekly Whiteville News-Reporter when he shared a Pulitzer public service award and other national press citations with W. Horace Carter, editor of the Tabor City Tribune, for three years of courageous campaigning against the KKK. During that period, hooded night riders terrorized the southeastern North Carolina countryside with floggings and cross burnings.

On Christmas Day, 1961, he suffered a stroke that paralyzed his legs and left arm and blocked part of his memory.

BACK AT TYPEWRITER

"First the ythought they would just let me go ahead and kick the bucket," Cole recalled. But after an operation and three months rest he was back at his typewriter.

He still moves and talks slowly. His left arm hangs by his side. But his memory is again sharp.

Last December, Cole left his job as editor of the Lumberton Post and, at 58, started his own semiweekly — the Robeson County Enterprise.

RECALLS HIS WAR

Recently, he sat in the old store which serves as his office and recalled his war with the KKK.

"Some people thought I was an s.o.b. and some thought I was a pretty smart guy.

"Things started to get pretty hot so I carried a gun every inch of the way. It got so I backed away from anybody who got too close.

"I let the word out around town that my wife had a shotgun and my boy, who was 17 at the time, had a 16-shot carbine.

"I told my son, 'They may get me one of these days, but you just take that carbine and sweep it around in front of the house and don't worry about me?"

During the klan's reign of terror in Columbus County, 13 persons, most of them white, were taken from their homes and flogged.

"Integration wasn't an issue at the time," Cole recalled. "They were after the type of person who spent his money on liquor instead of on his family."

80 WERE SENTENCED

Informants from within the ranks of the KKK finally provided police with enough information to make mass arrests. About 80 men, charged variously with kidnapping, assault and conspiracy, were convicted. Prison terms ranged up to six years.

Carnegie Hero Fund Was Established 60 Years Ago And Gives Medals, Cash

(Editor's Note: Several times a year the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission presents medals and cash awards for heroism. What it the commission? How did it originate? Who may qualify as a hero? This AP Spotlight gives the answers.)

By PAUL ZDINAK
Associated Press Writer

PITTSBURGH (AP)—In 1904, an explosion trapped nearly 200 miners in a coal mine at Harwick, Pa., not far from Pittsburgh.

While the fate of those below was still uncertain, several miners who had escaped volunteered for a rescue mission.

They never returned, perishing with their buddies.

This so impressed steel baron Andrew Carnegie that he decided to establish a fund to honor such heroes. This was the beginning of the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission.

4,000 MEDALS GIVEN

Since then the commission has awarded over 4,000 medals and granted more than $9 million to heroes and their dependents.

Carnegie came to America from Scotland while a boy. From a laborer in a cotton mill at a weekly wage of $1.20, he rose to become one of the wealthiest men in history.

He once wrote in his diary, "It is a disgrace for a man to die rich." Before his death in 1919 he gave away about $350 million.

Of his many philanthropic ventures, he said he was most proud of the Hero Fund Commission.

"IN HEROIC AGE"

Carnegie said he did not expect to stimulate or create heroism by his fund, "but I do believe that, if the hero is injured in his bold attempt to serve or save his fellow, he and those dependent upon him should not suffer pecuniarily.'

Carnegie's deed of trust to the commission on March 12, 1904, begins dramatically:

"Gentlemen:—We live in an heroic age. Not seldom are we thrilled by deeds of heroism where men or women are injured or lose their lives in attempting to preserve or rescue their fellows; such the heroes of civilization. The heroes of barbarism mained or killed theirs."

The deed goes on to list the requirements for awards. The fund was started with a grant of $5 million.

Carnegie later endowed heros funds in Great Britain and Ireland, France, Germany, Belgium, The Netherlands, Sweden, Switzerland, Norway, Denmark and Italy.

The fund in each country is administered by a commission. In the United States, the commission is comprised of 21 men representing various businesses and civic interests.

Just how is a hero chosen?

In this country acts of heroism may be reported directly by writing to the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission in Pittsburgh.

WITHOUT FANFARE

News accounts also provide a major source of candidates.

Four or five times a year the commission meets in Pittsburgh, without any fanfare, and takes final action in award cases.

Three types of medals are awarded — bronze, silver and gold. The medal is three inches in diameter, A relief bust of Carnegie is on one side and on the other is inscribed the name of the rescuer with a brief description of his act.

Cash awards may be made, but are not mandatory. In some cases no cash award is made; in other cases as much as $1,000 may be awarded.

MONSOON FAILS TO STOP FLIERS IN S. VIET NAM

WASHINGTON (AP) — Although hampered by the rainy season, U.S. and South Vietnamese air force planes are flying more than 1,000 missions a week against the Communist insurgents, analysis of recent action reports showed today.

There were 1,150 sorties against the Viet Cong last week and just under 1,300 the week before that.

It was clear from these reports that the controversial T28, a propeller-driven trainer converted into a fighter-bomber, still is carrying much of the attack load.

Another plane mentioned frequently in the combat summaries is the Skyraider dive bomber, which by late summer will replace the T28 and become the standard attack plane in Viet Nam.

The missions covered a wide range—close fire support for ground units of the Vietnamese army, escort of troop-carrying helicopters, reconnaissance, troop and supply lift and the bombing of Viet Cong encampments.

Last week alone, there were claims of 112 Communist-occupied buildings blasted in guerrilla havens.

Pa. Democratic Women For LBJ

BEDFORD, Pa. (AP)—President Johnson has the full support of the Pennsylvania Federation of Democratic Women for election in November.

The group also announced its support Wednesday of the civil rights legislation now before Congress and the Presidents "war on poverty" program.

The action came at the close of the federation's three-day convention. Next year's meeting will be held in Philadelphia.

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Race driver Chuck Hulse of Downey, Calif., will miss the Indianapolis 500-mile race because of an eye injury suffered in a sprint car pile-up at New Bremen, Ohio, earlier this month.

Hulse said Wednesday he had been told by an eye specialist that the injury to his vision would not heal in time for him to be able to drive in the $500,000 Memorial Day auto race.

The anchovy is a highly prized food fish, expecially a European species known as Ergraulis encrasicholus.

Contract Ends Joy Plant Tieup

FRANKLIN, Pa. (AP)—Machinists were back at work today at the Joy Manufacturing Co. plant in Franklin with a new labor contract.

Members of Local 1842 of the International Association of Machinists voted 427-125 Wednesday to accept the contract, ending a five-day strike.

The two-year contract provides increases in wages and fringe benefits plus adjustments in rates for the 750 machinists. Details were not given.

The strike started last Saturday after the old contract expired.

JUDY GARLAND CUTS AUDIENCE IN MELBOURNE

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP)—By the time the orchestra played "Over The Rainbow," the audience was hooting and Judy Garland had stalked off stage.

The sour notes didn't end with Miss Garland's concert Wednesday night.

The boxoffice was besieged for refunds today and the head of the Musicians' Union said the Australian orchestra that accompanied the singer had never been so humiliated.

Miss Garland herself commented, "I didn't like it, did you?"

The American singer's travail began when she arrived an hour late. Her manager blamed it on a sore throat. "You're late" and "Have another brandy," hecklers shouted.

7,000 PERSONS

Despite some fluffed notes, most of the crowd of 7,000 was with her during the first half of the concert, her only performance in Melbourne. But some didn't appreciate her fidgeting with the microphone cable or her side banter.

"Sing, sing!" and "Get on with it!" a few shouted, and soon the auditorium resounded with slow, prodding clapping.

LONG INTERMISSION

The audience's mood wasn't improved when Miss Garland took a half-hour intermission. She sang three more songs on her return, but the lyrics were fragmentary and the customers began drifting to the doors.

Miss Garland curtly left without any farewell, letting the orchestra play "Over The Rainbow"—her theme—by itself. The musicians departed amid howls.

Miss Garland's manager, Karl Brent, said the audience should have accepted her apology for being late.

MAN KILLS WIFE AND SMALL SON THEN SUICIDES

SEWARD, Pa. (AP)—A coal miner stabbed to death his four-year-old son and wife with a hunting knife Wednesday, then killed himself with the same weapon, state police said.

Police said Bernard Kott, 30, left a suicide note, but what the note said was not revealed. No indication of the motive was learned.

The wife, Jean, 32, was stabbed ten to 15 times, mostly in the chest, police said. The boy, William, was stabbed four times in the chest and once in the arm.

Police said it appeared the father first stabbed the boy, and that the mother, hearing the boy's screams, came running and Kott stabbed her. Officers indicated the mother may have tried to defend the boy at one point.

The boy and father were dead on arrival at Lee Hospital at Johnstown. Mrs. Kott died in the same hospital several hours later.

The stabbings took place in the Kott home in this small Westmoreland County community.

Police said the Kotts had three other sons, ages 10, 11 and 12, who were playing ball when the stabbings occurred.

Claim Surcharges Paid To Executive

NEW YORK (AP)—An executive of the 17 Shubert theaters on Broadway is accused of collecting $72,256 in "private, unlawful surcharges" from nine ticket brokers last year.

Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan said the nine cooperated in the investigation. He noted that there are 90 to 100 licensed brokers in the city.

Murray Helwitz, 47, of Great Neck, N.Y., manager of the Shubert theaters' central ticket office, which handles all mail orders and sales to brokers, was indicted Wednesday on charges of violating the city code governing theater ticket sales. The maximum penalty is a year in jail and a $500 fine.

Hogan said the nine brokers paid off once a week, and surcharges ranged from 25 to 50 cents a ticket.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

DEATHS

NEW YORK (AP)—Dr. Henry W. Cave, 76, eminent surgeon and former president of the American College of Surgeons, died Wednesday after a long illness.

NEW YORK (AP)—Maj. Gen. John W. Morgan, 69, retired commander of the 98th Infantry Division who served in World War I and World War II, died Wednesday. At his death, he was board chairman of Charles P. Rogers & Co. of Yonkers, N.Y., bedding manufacturers.

SUE BETTE DAVIS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Paramount Pictures Corp. has sued actress Bette Davis for $7,000 damages, claiming she has refused to report for filming one added scene for the picture "Where Love Has Gone."

The suit asked that Miss Davis be restrained from working in any artistic endeavor.

DECLARE DIVIDEND

PITTSBURGH (AP)— A 50-cent dividend for the second quarter was declared Wednesday by the National Steel Corp.

It was an increase of five cents. The action follows a similar increase effective last December.

TURKS BLAMED IN FIRST DEATH OF UN SOLDIER

By ALEX EFTY

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—Turkish Cypriots were blamed today for the first fatality in the U.N. peace force on Cyprus.

U.N. headquarters announced a Finnish radio operator, Juhanu Matikainen, 27, was killed Wednesday night in a two-hour battle between Turkish Cypriots and Finnish patrols.

A U.N. statement said Matikainen was hit by three bullets while sitting in his patrol car in fields near the Turkish village of Kanli, six miles northwest of Nicosia.

The car had accompanied a recovery team to aid another Finnish vehicle that broke down while providing an escort for farmers bringing in their harvest.

TURKS FIRE VEHICLE

Turkish positions fired about 20 shots at the Finnish vehicle, the U.N. statement said. Lt. Col. U. Kettinen, commander of the Finnish battalion, rushed to the area with a platoon and two armored personnel carriers in response for a radio plea for help.

Though the Finns called out their identities, the shooting continued. The Finns returned the fire.

Matikainen was struck once in the head and twice in the chest. The firing stopped after he was hit.

SENDS REGRETS

Umit Suleyman, a representative of Turkish Cypriot vice president Fazil Kuchuk, expressed "deep regret" at the incident. He said he would conduct a full investigation and report to the U.N. force.

Troops of the peace force have been fired on a number of times since they took up their task on Cyprus in late March, but heretofore the few casualties have only been wounded.

A British soldier was shot in the leg in Nicosia April 24 and two other Britons were injured by an explosion May 3. None of the injuries was serious.

6,500 FINNS IN FORCE

About 1,000 Finns are in the 6,500-man peace force. The other troops come from Britain, Canada, Ireland, Sweden, Denmark and Austria.

TO GET DEGREE

WAYNESBURG, Pa. (AP)—Gov. Scranton will receive an honorary Doctor of Law degree Sunday at commencement exercises at Waynesburg College.

PHILA. CHILD CARE BUREAU IS ACCUSED

HARRISBURG (AP) — A three-member, fact finding committee is preparing recommendations in the case of a private social agency accused by the Public Welfare Department of conducting a substandard operation.

The allegation was denied Wednesday by Mrs. Ada B. Harris, former executive director of the agency, the Bureau of Child Care in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Harris, who now serves as a bureau consultant, told the committee that the agency has complied with state regulations governing the operation of such organizations. She said a number of administrative improvements were made following state surveys which prompted the charge of substandard procedures.

The committee will present its recommendations to Arlin M. Adams, state secretary of public welfare.

Committee members are Bruce E. Cooper, Harrisburg attorney; Wendell G. Freeland, Pittsburgh attorney, and Dr. Mary Ella Robertson, assistant dean of the graduate school of social work, University of Pittsburgh.

Good Humor Man Was Bootlegger

WASHINGTON (AP) — The friendly ice cream man—dubbed by police as the "ding-a-ling bootlegger"—has been arrested for dispensing too much cheer.

Police said the vendor, Andrew W. Townsley, 22, sold not only frozen goodies but also alcoholic beverages.

Authorities in nearby District Heights, Md., said they had been hearing about Townsley's dual merchandising role for two weeks.

Townsley was arrested Wednesday and charged with selling alcoholic beverages to a minor and contributing to the delinquency of a minor. He was held in jail in lieu of $1,000 bond on both charges.

GA. ELECTION LAW CHANGES PASS SENATE

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—A proposed change in election laws that could add thousands of Negroes to Georgia's voter rolls by making it easier to register has been steered through the State Senate by its lone Negro member.

An amendment offered by Sen. Leroy Johnson of Atlanta—the only Negro lawmaker in Georgia since Reconstruction, was approved Wednesday by the Senate 35-2. It would simplify questions posed to illiterates.

But House Speaker George T. Smith predicted that it will be at least two weeks before his chamber will get the proposal.

EXTENSIVE CHANGES

The Senate is not yet a third of the way through the long election code revision, which now includes Johnson's amendment, and the House also must finish work on a proposed new state constitution before taking up the new election rules.

The Johnson amendment provides that registrars approve prospective voters who answer correctly four of six comparatively easy questions. The amendment was substituted for a section that required illiterates to answer 20 of 30 more difficult questions correctly.

Less than one per cent of the Negroes applying under the 30-question standard have been able to register, Johnson said.

CHANGE QUESTIONS

Johnson's amendment included these questions: Name the president of the U.S.; the vice president; the two U.S. senators from Georgia; governor of Ge ia; members of the General Assembly who represent you, and the sheriff of your county.

The questions now used include:

On what day and how often is the general election held in Georgia at which members of the General Assembly are elected; what is a Republican form of government; how does the Constitution of the United States provide that it may be amended; what does the Constitution of the United States provide regarding the suspension of the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus.

CALLED RIDICULOUS

Smith declined to predict how the proposal might fare in the House, but said, "I think the 30 questions are ridiculous and there should be some changes. I'm in favor of something along that line, but I wouldn't want to be stuck with those exact questions before we get a chance to look at it."

However, the rural-dominated House probably will quickly return to the more stringent tests.

Gov. Hughes Blocks Favorite Son Drive

TRENTON, N.J. (AP)— Gov. Richard J. Hughes has blocked a move to make him a favorite son candidate for the Democratic vice presidential nomination.

Hughes said Wednesday night he had vetoed a plan to commit New Jersey's 77 votes to him at the Democratic National Convention.

"I'd rather President Johnson express his own views (on a running mate)," said Hughes.

Hughes reiterated his intention to run for re-election.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

Lawrence Shindledecker, Charmian, fire warden for the Jack's Mountain area, is shown Tuesday afternoon as he watched the developing fires atop the mountain and directed his crews by radio. More than 100 men from various fire companies, factories and forest fire crew foughts the fires moving from one fire to another until all were brought under control. (Times photo)

Smoke poured from the side of Jack's Mountain near Fairfield Wednesday afternoon at one of five locations at which the timber burst into flame after a train had passed. The fire in the general area shown burned to the top of the hill before being brought under control. (Times photo)

Navy Tracks Red Ships In Pacific

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Two Soviet trawlers are cruising off the San Francisco coast but the Navy says it has them under surveillance.

The vessels were sighted Wednesday near the Farallon Islands, 26 miles west of San Francisco.

A Navy spokesman said the craft have been tracked since May 10 when they were first seen near San Clemente Island off Southern California.

The trawlers are the Barograph and the Amter, each a 165-footer.

The Navy said one blinkered that the pair was engaged in hydrographic study. Another pair was trailed last August as it cruised up and down the coast.

Leaping Fish Hits Detective In Eye

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—A Mobile city detective insists this fish story is true—and he has a black eye as proof.

Charley Nall said he was proceeding in his boat through nearby Chalacoohee Bay Sunday when a mullet leaped from the water and smacked him right between the eyes.

SCRANTON TO GET BRIEFING SEE CONGRESS

By JOSEPH R. COYNE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania gets a secret briefing on world affairs from the Johnson administration today and goes to Capitol Hill to urge Congress to assist poverty-stricken Appalachia.

In between, he sandwiched plans for a luncheon meeting with William E. Miller, Republican national chairman, although Scranton has insisted time and again he is not a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination.

Miller called the luncheon meeting "just a friendly get-together."

BREAKFAST SESSION

Also on Scranton's agenda was a breakfast meeting with all Pennsylvania members of Congress and a late afternoon reception arranged by Pennsylvania Republicans.

Scranton was the only witness scheduled this morning by the House Public Works Committee in its investigation of the Johnson administrations $228-million 10-state Appalachia program.

It was at Scranton's request that Johnson added $10 million to the program to help mining regions of Appalachia, which includes West Virginia and parts of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Kentucky, Virginia, Maryland, Tennessee, North Carolina, Alabama and Georgia.

TO MEET TOP AIDES

Scheduled to brief Scranton in midafternoon were Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and John A. McCone, chairman of the Central Intelligence Agency.

President Johnson had offered the world situation briefings to all announced and potential GOP candidates. New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller was briefed last week. Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon declined the offer. Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine and Harold Stassen accepted, but have yet to receive their briefings.

Although he has said he is not a candidate for the nomination, Scranton has stated he would accept a sincere and honest draft.

Students Claim Mattress Record

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—There were groans—and some complaints from the anchor men—but 56 University of Oklahoma students claimed a record Wednesday for piling onto a mattress.

They explained their antic provided a break in the monotony of studying for final exams.

CALL MISTRIAL ON CHARGES OF NEGRO JUROR

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — As the foreman was about to read a civil rights trial jury's decision Wednesday, one of two Negro jurors stood up and shouted, "I was assassinated and crucified in the jury room because I am a Negro."

The charges touched off a near riot in the courtroom and caused Judge Andrew J. Eyman to declare a mistrial.

One courtroom spectator, William Bancroft, 20, was arrested for hitting a court bailiff.

Jurors Geraldine Earp and Josephine Nichols made their charges after the jury had deliberated 25 hours following the two-week trial of 14 defendants.

"I want to be excused. I put myself on trial the minute I walked into the jury room because I am a Negro," Mrs. Earp said.

"IGNORE EVIDENCE"

White members of the jury said the Negro women risregarded the evidence and the judge's instructions and decided the case on a civil rights basis.

Later a jury in the court of Municipal Judge Lawrence Mana convicted 12 defendants who were arrested in the Cadillac agency on charges of trespassing and unlawful assembly. Nine of these defendants additionally were convicted on charges of failure to disperse.

Of 509 demonstrators arrested in the Sheraton-Palace Hotel and various auto agencies demonstrations in March and April, 35 have been convicted and 45 acquitted. Four cases have been dismissed and 14 have pleaded no contest.

L/Cpl. Herbert H. Bowers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grim Bowers, Aspers R. 1, will leave for Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, after 30 days at his home. He has served with the Marine Corps in Washington, D. C.; Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands, Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, and at Camp Lejeune, N. C. He expects to be in Hawaii for two years.

LUTHERANS ON CIVIL RIGHTS AGAIN TODAY

BUCK HILL FALLS, Pa., (AP)—Delegates at the annual convention of the Eastern Pennsylvania Synod of the Lutheran Church turned their attention again today to civil rights.

They were called back for more debate on the question of whether the Synod should provide bail for church members arrested in civil rights demonstrations.

They debated the issue Wednesday night before putting it aside for action again today.

The conventions committee on reference and counsel has recommended that the question be given further study by a special committee on religion and race.

APPROVE BUDGET

But backers of the resolution took the floor Wednesday urging its passage. The Rev. William E. Hershey, Lutheran pastor to students at the University of Pennsylvania and Temple, who introduced the resolution, said, "We have no time to lose."

One lay delegate arguing against the resolution said, "It is my understanding that the business of the church is to bring peace, not to encourage violence.'

Delegates also approved a $1,327,500 budget for the synod for 1965, a 4 per cent increase over this year's budget. They also approved a resolution commending the Synods' administration for its fair-employment practices.

The old-fashioned remedy for "spring fever" is two ounces of sulphur, two ounces of molasses, mixed.

Round Figures Belie True Age

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A study at Ohio State University seeks to determine the extent of "age heaping" — the tendency of persons to report in approximate, rather than actual age — in census figures for nonwhites.

Prof. Melvin Zelnik is conducting the study under a $13,700 National Science Foundation grant. He worked on a similar project for the white population which was completed four years ago.

The earlier study indicated a tendency to report approximate ages, resulting in overcounts especially in ages ending in zero or five. About 33 per cent of white females reporting age 40 in 1890 actually were another age, about 25 per cent in 1910, 17 per cent in 1930 and 9 per cent in 1950.

The anemone is a large genus of perennial herbs of the crowfoot family.

New Techniques Measure Heights

HONOLULU (AP) — Some of Hawaii's mountains are growing higher as the years pass; other have shrunk.

That's how things appear to be, according to figures recently issued by the U.S. Geological Survey, but they really aren't. It's just that a new and more accurate way of measuring elevation is being used.

A 5,240-foot mountain on the island of Kauai, for instance, is now officially 70-feet higher than in 1910. But Haleakala on the island of Maui — measured at 10,025 feet in 1924 — is two feet shorter.

Laotian Commies Offer Peace To Prince Phouma

By JOHN RODERICK

TOKYO (AP)—The Laotian Communists have offered peace terms to Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma in the wake of their successful rout of his neutralist army from the Plaine des Jarres.

Prince Souphanouvong, chief of the Red Pathet Lao, sent the premier a message demanding punishment of the leaders of the April 19 rightist coup and the return of Pathet Lao soldiers to Vientiane, the Laotian capital, which they left eight months ago after clashing with rightist troops.

"If you act on my proposals," said Souvanouphong, "then I myself, the Neo Lao Haksat (Pathet Lao party) and other patriotic forces will support you and help you to settle the Laotian question in a peaceful way."

It was the first Communist proposal for an end to the fighting, which has put the neutralists on the run after heavy losses of men and materiel.

Western diplomats in Vientiane described Souvanna's position as "desperate." They indicated that outside help would be needed to save the Southeast Asian kingdom from a Communist takeover if the 1962 Geneva accords guaranteeing its neutrality fail.

Reliable sources in Vientiane said the Laotian defense committee, which includes the rightist coup leaders, is pressing Souvanna to ask foreign military and economic help against the Communists.

IRS Advertises Sale Of Property

The U. S. Treasury Department Internal Revenue Service will sell the personal property of William H. Plank, trading as Plank's Electric Service, 644 York St., on June 2 at 11 a.m., according to an advertisement appearing in today's edition of The Gettysburg Times.

The advertisement, signed by Kenneth O. Hook, district director of Internal Service, lists 77 lots of personal property and states "only the right, title and interest of William H. Plank, trading as Plank's Electric Service, are being offered." The 77 lots will be sold as such and "not in the aggregate." Articles listed include a a water cooler, ice flake machine, desk and chair, fan, adding machine, typewriter, cash register, various motors, armatures, coils of electric wire and various machinery plus a delivery truck and miscellaneous refrigerator, radio and television parts.

According to the courthouse records the Treasury Department has a lien of $611.49 in unpaid federal tax in 1963 against Plank and $936 in 1962.

DRIVER CHARGED

Fairfield Justice of the Peace, G. Edward Kane has sent a 10-day notice to Larry E. Flohr, Fairfield R. 1, that he has been charged by Fairfield Policeman Wilbert L. Fleming with reckless driving on a motorcycle.

CITY PLANS CRIME WAR

PHILADELPHIA (AP)— The city is planning a $2.4 million war on crime-breeding conditions in North Central Philadelphia, according to Mayor James H. J. Tate.

Tate announced the program at a news conference Wednesday and said it would start at once.

Tate said the city, working with 10 churches in the area, will build recreation centers, athletic courts and will conduct cultural programs and training in the arts and crafts.

Tate described the area where the program will operate as one "with the most juvenile crime, adult crime, tuberculosis, veneral diseases, unemployment, poverty and other social ills."

He said there are 45 juvenile gangs with 2,000 members in the area. Howard R. Leary, police commissioner, said there 3,134 juveniles arrested in that area last year.

To Speak May 30 At Abbottstown

The Rev. Dr. Nevin E. Smith will be the guest speaker at the Abbottstown Community Memorial Day program on Memorial Day evening.

Dr. Smith, a graduate of Franklin and Marshall College and Lancaster Theological Seminary, has been pastor of Emmanuel Church, Hanover, since 1940. In addition to his work in the pastorate, he served Mercersburg Synod as chairman of the Committee on Church and Ministry and is currently on the Penn Central Conference Commission on Church and Ministry. On a number of occasions, Dr. Smith has been a delegate to the General Synod of the United Church of Christ.

The program in Abbottstown will be held in the old graveyard of Emmanuel Church following decoration of graves and a parade which will begin at about 7 p.m. Music will be provided by the New Oxford High School Band.

Say Brain Damage Was Death Cause

Miss Ida M. Myers, victim of a robbery and beating five months ago, died of extensive brain damage, Dr. Thomas M. Hart, York County coroner, said Wednesday.

York police said Miss Myers' injuries on December 12 at her apparel shop in York were caused by a robber who has not been caught.

She died Tuesday at Pleasant Acres Hospital and was buried in a private funeral service today at 2 p.m. at Mummert's Meeting House, near East Berlin.

Sheep Field Day At PSU Saturday

The annual sheep and wool field day will be held Saturday at Pennsylvania State University, Associate County Agent Joseph Lutz has announced.

Registration will begin at 9 o'clock Saturday morning in the meats laboratory. A tour of sheep pastures and flocks, lamb brading, carcass evaluation and a meat cutting demonstration are scheduled. A state 4-H sheep shearing contest and selection of a Pennsylvania wool queen are also scheduled for the program. Mrs. Gladys Chapitis of the American Wool Council will discuss home sewing with wool and Robert Genders of Australia will speak on "Sheep Production Down Under."

Confederate Burial Plot To Be Closed

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP)— The Confederate section of the National Cemetery in Springfield will be closed permanently Friday following the burial of Martha Ann Hadden.

She was the last person eligible for burial in the Confederate section.

Mrs. Hadden, 92, will be buried beside her husband, Thomas Henry Hadden, a Texas cavalryman who died in 1939.

The cemetery was started during the Civil War. Of the 501 persons originally buried there, 238 were killed in the Battle of Wilsons Creek Aug. 10, 1861, and 263 others died of wounds or illness.

It was designated as a national cemetery about 1911.

TV FIGURES SUBJECTED TO MANY CRITICS

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — CBS recently broke into a Beatle-ish rock and roll act on the Red Skelton Show with a news report on the Indiana primary vote. It's reward was a spate of furious mail from teen-agers.

A carefully balanced report the the cigarette controversy brought forth accusing mail — about evenly divided between letters accusing the same program of being weighted on the anticigarette side and strongly favoring the tobacco interests.

Walter Cronkite appeared on Wednesday nights program to report ruefully that he had been accused of revealing Communist and fascist bias in letters from viewers of a single show. Harry Reasoner read a letter from an irritated viewer complaining about his pronunciation of several words, including "water."

"LETTERS TO EDITOR"

It was all part of an experimental network program called "Dear CBS" consisting of a sampling of its viewer mail — pleased, angry, critical and crank, and done in a good-humored fashion.

The program obviously is an effort to establish something in television comparable to the "letters to the editors" department of newspapers and magazines. Certainly it was interesting enough and revealing enough to be repeated from time to time.

STILL A FEW

Although television programmers seem to have lost interest in this season's output in the concentration on next season's shows, it is still possible to find a few programs of special interest among the welter of reruns.

Tonight, there is ABC's short special, "Big Brother Is Listening" (10:30-11 Eastern Daylight Time) which takes up the subject of invasion of privacy in this country — investigations without the knowledge of the investigated, electronic eavesdropping and mandatory lie detector tests.

CBS plans to present a half-hour documentary series on World War I, called "The Great War," on Tuesday nights next fall. It will use film shot during the 1918 period—silent, of course —supplemented by new material shot to amplify and explain events and reactions.

stand by while southeast Asia is over-run by armed aggression. As long as the peoples of that area are determined to preserve their own independence and ask for our help in preserving it, we will extend it. This, of course, is the meaning of President Johnson's request a few days ago for additional funds for more economic and military assistance for Viet-Nam.

"And if anyone has the illusion that my government will abandon the people of Viet-Nam—or that we shall weary of the burden of support that we are rendering these people—it can only be due to ignorance of the determination and stamina of the American people."

He declared there is a very simple way to restore order in southeast Asia and to bring about the end of the U.S. military aid to South Viet Nam.

SEEKS WITHDRAWAL

"Let all foreign troops withdraw from Laos," he said.

"Let all states in that area make the simple decision to leave their neighbors alone. Stop the secret subversion of other people's independence. Stop the clandestine and illegal transit of national frontiers. Stop the export of revolution and the doctrine of violence. Stop the violations of the political agreements reached at Geneva for the future of southeast Asia.

"The people of Laos want to be left alone.

"The people of Viet-Nam want to be left alone.

"The people of Cambodia want to be left alone.

"When their neighbors decide to leave them alone — as they must—there will be no fighting in southeast Asia and no need for American advisers to leave their homes to help these people resist aggression. Any time that decision can be put in enforceable terms, my government will be only too happy to put down the burden that we have been sharing with those determined to preserve their independence. Until such assurances are forthcoming, we shall stand for the independence of free peoples in southeast Asia as we have elsewhere."

SUGGEST BILATERAL FORCE

Returning to the specific issue of Cambodia, Stevenson offered these three additional suggestions:

—That the council request Cambodia and South Viet Nam to establish a substantial military force on a bilateral basis to observe and patrol the frontier and report to U.N. Secre-General U Thant.

—That the bilateral force be augmented by U.N. observers and possibly placed under U. N. command to provide an impartial third party element "representing the world community."

—That an all U.N.-force be established to patrol the border. This would be more expensive, but if this was proved desirable "the United States will be prepared to contribute."

SOVIET "FAIRY TALES"

Stevenson branded as "malicious fairy tales, charges made by the Soviet Union on Tuesday that the United States was organizing military action against the people of the Indochinese Peninsula.

The debate took place against a beckdrop of intense diplomatic activity concentrated primarily on halting the Communist drive against the neutralist Laotian government of Prince Souvanna Phouma.

France declared that the only solution of the Laotian crisis is guaranteed neutrality. It urged that neutrality be extended to all southeast Asia, including Viet Nam.

In Laos Souvanna threw his entire seven-plane airforce into the battle to maintain the final neutralist foothold on the Plaines Des Jarres.

Following strewing of flowers on the graves by the children and the American Legion ritual Rev. Dr. Henry W. Sternat will give the invocation. Lincoln's "Gettysburg Address" will be read by Steve Haller, a Sixth Grade student at Biglerville Elementary School. Following a selection by the band Gayle Thomas, also a Sixth Grade student at Biglerville, will recite "In Flanders Field." Following the talk by Attorney Swope and the National Anthem by the band, Rev. Norman Wilson will give the benediction.

C. William Zettle and Kenneth Guise are the committee for the Biglerville services.

HELD FOR MURDER

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Dennis A. Novitski, 21, of Swedesburg has been held without bail on charges of murdering 13-year old Joanne Humay of Swedeland in a quarry last May 11. Police Lt. John J. Dunlevy testified at a hearing Wednesday that Novitski has signed a statement admitting the killing.

LIM AND YORK WELFARE UNIT MAY BE JOINED

A proposed merger of the West Penn Lutheran Inner Mission and the York Lutheran Welfare Service will be a major item on the agenda for the annual meeting of the West Penn. LIM board to be held in Carlisle June 15, it was announced following a meeting of the LIM board of directors at Trinity Lutheran Church in Arendtsville Monday evening.

The host pastor, the Rev. Ronald VanBlargan, led the opening devotions. Board members attending were: Dr. Paul L. Reaser, Gettysburg; Rev. Glenn T. Hafer, Boiling Springs; Emanuel C. Gunnet, McKnightstown; David C. Houck, Arendtsville; Mrs. Freda Rynard, Plainfield; Melvin G. Rudy, Chambersburg; Raymond Smith, Newville; Miss Edith Kerschner, Carlisle; Rev. Glenn L. Stahl, Waynesboro; Ralph E. Lightner, Loysville; Harold Pensinger, Greencastle; J. Norman Statler, Chambersburg. Mrs. Henry T. Bream, director of the Lutheran Inner Mission, and James J. Raun, synodical director of social ministry, were present also. Dr. Reaser, president, presided. A letter of resignation from the Rev. Robert O. Whitehead, Scotland, was accepted with regret.

Mr. Raun reported on recent meetings of a joint committee of representatives of West Penn LIM and York Lutheran Welfare Service on the merger proposal. Representatives of the two boards have met to work out the details of consolidating the two corporations. This procedure is being recommended by the Synodical Board of Social Ministry to strengthen and extend the social services to Lutheran families across the synod.

EXPECT APPROVAL

Action to gain the approval of the merger is anticipated at the June meeting in Carlisle. The new corporation would become a part of the total synodical Lutheran Social Services.

Pastor Hafer, reporting for the Social Service Committee, presented a recommendation that a permanent office be opened in Chambersburg to serve that area in a full-time capacity. The property committee was instructed to locate office facilities, and the personnel committee to begin recruitment of staff.

Mrs. Bream presented highlights of the first national conference on homemaker services she attended recently in Washington, D. C. She said that the services of a homemaker frequently can enable the aged person to remain in his own home, when often it appears that institutionalization is the only means of meeting the need. The homemaker also can be a real factor in helping to hold together a family unit, when separation threatens, she said.

TO SUMMER SCHEDULE

Reporting on casework services rendered by the LIM during the last three months, Mrs. Bream said an average of 36 families per month are on the active roll. There have been a few cases where emergency material relief has been given, but the majority of services involve counseling to the aged and developing plans for their care either in their own homes or institutions, and counseling with parents and children. Mrs. Bream reported that the staff traveled an average of 988 miles per month in the performance of these services in this three-month period.

Approval was given for the Gettysburg office to resume the summer schedule of 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily Monday through Friday beginning June 1. The established schedule of office hours in Carlisle and Chambersburg will be maintained as usual — 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Wednesday in Carlisle, Friday in Chambersburg. Mrs. Diana Scheer, caseworker, was placed on permanent status. She has been serving as casework-aide since last October.

SCHOLARSHIP IS MEMORIAL

Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity is establishing a scholarship for the freshman brother with the highest academic standing plus substantial financial need after the completion of his second semester. The scholarship will be awarded immediately after classes begin in the fall following the candidate's first year.

The committee to decide the recipient of the scholarship will be comprised of the president of the fraternity, the scholarship chairman, the faculty scholarship adviser, the dean of students, the dean of men, and the adviser to the IFC. The student shall have at least a 2.7 average and sufficient financial need as determined by the committee.

The scholarship will be called the William O. Duck Scholarship. It shall be $100 plus whatever additions might be made by alumni. If there is no student with sufficient need who fulfils the academic requirement, the money will be added to next year's award. Instead of the scholarship, an award will be made and the student with the highest academic average will be cited. A plaque will record the name of each year's winner. Where the student with the highest average has no need but another student does have the need plus an average of 2.7 or above, a scholarship certificate will be awarded to the top student, his name will be placed on the plaquee, and the scholarship will go to the second student.

Dr. Duck, who died in 1958, was director of guidance and placement at Gettysburg College and was the Lambda Chi Alpha advisor.

York Springs PTA Election Is Held

Frank Myers was elected president of the York Springs Elementary PTA at its last meeting of the season on Tuesday evening. He and the other newly-elected officers were installed at the same session.

The other officers include: First vice president, Mrs. Frank Myers; second vice president, Mrs. Charlotte Chronister; third vice president, Mrs. Gerald Blocher; secretary, Mrs. Gerald Deitzel; assistant secretary, Mrs. Ruth Williams, and treasurer, Bennie Fadenrecht.

The Rev. Donald T. Roemer, pastor of the York Springs Church of God, led devotions before the business meeting. Mrs. Fred Hopper presided. There was a buzz session on "Don't Be A Dropout Parent" with Paul Middour as moderator.

Supervising Principal Amos D. Meyers discussed ungraded primary schools that allows pupils to advance at their own learning speed levels. Merits of the system were pointed out. A social hour followed with refreshments by the Hospitality committee.

Pool Sanitation Is Demonstrated

In the interest of swimming pool sanitation, the state Department of Health conducted a demonstration Wednesday afternoon at the Gettysburg College swimming pool for owners and operators of public pools. Owners or operators of public pools or their representatives from this county and nearby towns and cities attended. About 30 were present for the demonstration which was conducted by Donald B. Hills, sanitarian for this county.

Three sanitary engineers from the state and Curtis Coull, swimming instructor at the college addressed the group on equipment and operation of pools, inspections and reports, safety and sanitation. A question period followed.

CUBAN EXILES FAIL TO ATTACK CASTRO REGIME

By BEN F. MEYER

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The long-promised attack on Communist Cuba by the Revolutionary Junta, an exile group, appeared today to be something for the future—or a well-kept secret.

The junta, at the end of Cuba's May 20 independence anniversary on which it planned to have men fighting in Cuba, issued a statement which did not mention any attacks by its forces.

Rogelio Cisneros, chief in exile of the junta, told reporters one of the organization's objectives—harassing the Fidel Castro dictatorship — had been achieved, "especially from the point of view of psychological warfare."

MILITARY ALERTED

A Havana dispatch said the military had been placed on alert, with all leaves canceled.

"The threats of attack have served a magnificent purpose in forcing extraordinary measures upon the Castro regime and doubtless producing widespread unrest and chaos in the already-floundering Cuban economy," said another exile leader.

There was a flurry of rumors about sabotage and minor forays by junta forces led by Manuel Ray. But the Havana regime's radio confirmed none of them. Exiles recalled, however, that it took Havana radio 15 hours to confirm last week's attack on a sugar mill by an exile group.

The junta's statement appealed to all Cuban exiles to help the fight to overthrow Castro.

"Popular victory does not come in the form of spectacular invasion," it added.

No action was announced by two other leading militant forces among the exiles, the Revolutionary Recovery Movement, which attacked the sugar mill, and the forces headed by guerrilla fighter Eloy Gutierrez Menoyo.

Various reports circulated in Miami about events purportedly occurring in Cuba but there was no confirmation from Havana.

Lauritz Melchior Will Wed Saturday

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Lauritz Melchior, 74, retired opera star, will be married on Saturday—two weeks before he takes off for the North Pole and a polar bear hunt.

Melchior and Mary Markham 40, took out their marriage license Wednesday at Santa Monica and announced they would be wed at Melchior's nearby estate in a chapel built especially for the ceremony.

Miss Markham said they would fly to Honolulu for a honeymoon.

"Then," boomed Melchior, "I'm going on a polar bear hunting expedition to the North Pole on June 5."

His bride, he said, will join him July 12 in New York City.

Couple Burned In Home Explosion

HARRISBURG (AP)—A Harrisburg man and his wife were burned severely Wednesday night in an explosion and flash fire in the basement of their home.

Listed in critical condition at Harrisburg Hospital with burns over 70 per cent of the body was Mrs. Erma M. Sheetz, 42. Her husband, John R., 46, was listed in serious condition with burns over 40 per cent of the body.

Police Lt. F. W. Wollet said the couple was cleaning a washing machine motor with gasoline when the fumes were ignited by a nearby heater. The blast was heard by a next door neighbor who summoned firemen.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

After four years as assistant pastor of Grace Lutheran Church in Lancaster, the Rev. Frederick S. Weiser, alumnus of Gettysburg College and Seminary, is resigning to spend a year in Germany as part of a three-man team of diaconic helpers.

He will leave June 1 for Neuen Dettelsau, Bavaria, to serve in various ways with a deaconess institution, theological seminary and school for missionaries in the village and its vicinity.

Also on the team will be Larry Neff, 21, Slatedale, who will graduate June 1 from Franklin and Marshall College, and Paull Spring, 25, Wheeling, W. Va., who is graduating from the Lutheran Theological Seminary here. Neff plans to enter Philadelphia Lutheran Seminary when he returns.

IS HANOVER NATIVE

The three will serve without salary through the area of Bavaria around Neuen Dettelsau, which is 40 miles southwest of Nuremberg.

A service will be held next Sunday in Grace Church in Lancaster commissioning the trio as diaconic helpers. The Rev. Mr. Weiser, a grandson of the late Samuel Weiser of Gettysburg and descendant of the Pennsylvania pioneer, Conrad Weiser, has written a book on the Weiser family and has published a book on the deaconesses, "Love's Response," in 1960.

He is a native of Hanover and is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald K. Weiser, who now live at Glen Ellyn, Ill. He taught English Bible at Gettysburg College while a student at the seminary. He is a director of the Pennsylvania German Folklore Society and will become its first exchange member to study in Germany. The Rev. Mr. Weiser and Spring will visit Iceland, Norway, Sweden and Denmark enroute to Germany.

Furniture Store At Shamokin Burns

SHAMOKIN, Pa. (AP)— The Ranshaw furniture store in nearby Coal Twp. was destroyed by fire Wednesday night. An adjacent two-story row home was damaged, but no one was hurt.

Seven companies fought the blaze, which burned out of control for more than an hour and a half because of low water pressure. The fire started at the rear of the two-story main store building, also part of the store, was wrecked. All were frame structures.

Daniel Dudra, store owner, said damage to the store and home was estimated at between $60,000 and $75,000.

Morse Assails Delay On Judges

HARRISBURG (AP)—Democratic State Chairman Otis B. Morse says Gov. Scranton's delay in appointing five new judges in Philadelphia is "inexcusable."

The judgeships were created by the 1963 legislature with Scranton authorized to fill the posts last November.

"Gov. Scranton's failure to name five new judges in Philadelphia," Morse said Wednesday in a statement, "is doing serious harm to orderly judicial process in that major urban center."

Morse said the "delay is only helping to build up a greater pile of court cases."

CHILD KILLED

NEW BLOOMFIELD, Pa., (AP)—Samuel Miller Jr., 4, was killed Wednesday when a tractor overturned on top of him on the family farm at New Bloomfield R. 1. He was pronounced dead on arrival at Polyclinic Hospital in Harrisburg. His father who was driving the tractor with the boy on his lap, was thrown clear and escaped injury.

BIDS ARE OPENED

HARRISBURG (AP)— Unofficial low bids totaling $416,779 were opened by the General State Authority Wednesday for construction of a transportation unit and central storage and supply facility for the state police in Harrisburg.

MRS. LBJ'S FARM EARNED $284 IN 1963

BILLINGSLEY, Ala. (AP)—Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnsons farm in Alabama brought her a net profit of only $284.23 last year, the overseer of the property said Tuesday.

Wallace Canterbury, the overseer, said Mrs. Johnson's gross income from the farm in 1963 was $2,463.41 and her expenses $2,179.18.

The farm came into the limelight recently when Reps. David T. Martin, R-Neb., and M. G. Snyder, R-Ky., described the tenants on the Johnson property as impoverished and their homes as tumbledown shacks.

A White House spokesman answered the charge by calling the rental of the homes and plots of land to tenants for only $60 a year a humanitarian gesture on the part of the First Lady.

The overseer added that there are tenants living on the property for whom Mrs. Johnson wants to provide a lifetime home.

Canterbury said he tried to persuade Mrs. Johnson to put the farm in the soil bank when he became manager five years ago. He said she could have realized as much as $5,000 annual profit that way.

"But she decided against it because she would have had to displace the tenants and also because of her attitude toward accepting that much government aid," Canterbury said.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP)—Lew Hoad turned back Luis Ayala of Chile 10-8, 9-11, 7-5 Wednesday night to advance to the quarter-finals of a professional tennis tournament.

Alex Olmedo, former U.S. Davis Cup star, also advanced when Australian Mal Anderson defaulted because of bursitis in his right elbow.

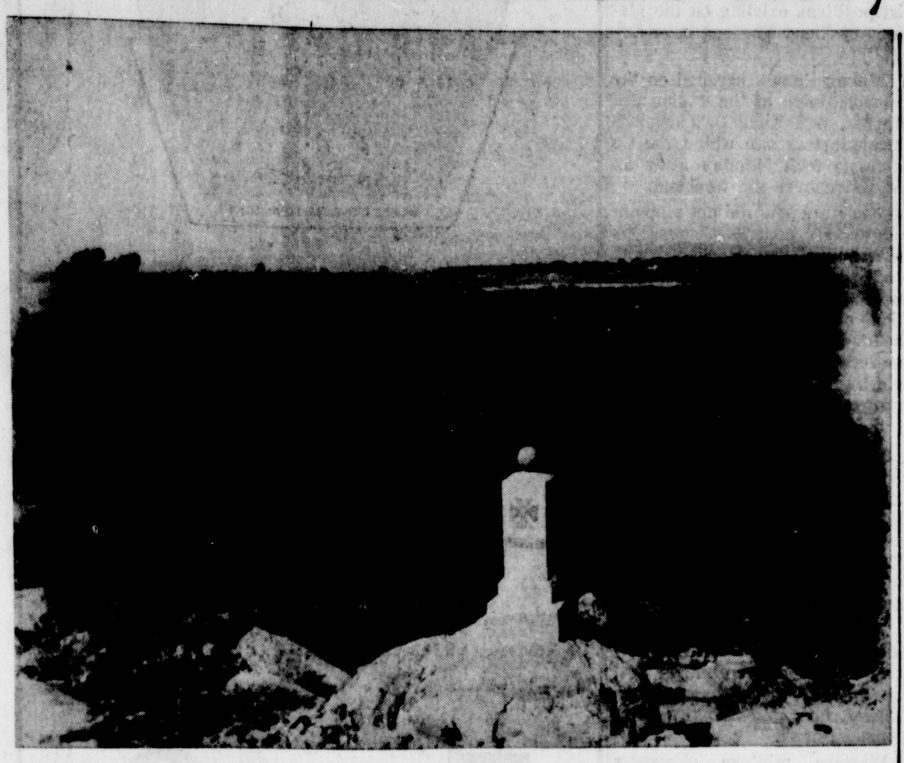
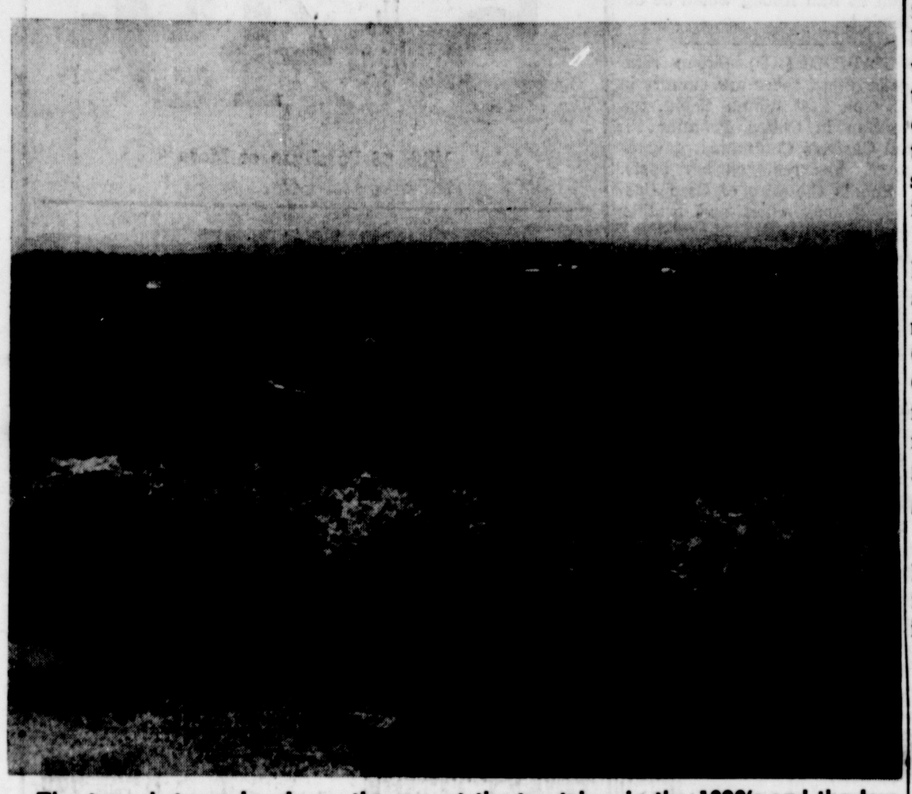
Word And Picture Story Of The Restoration Of Part Of Battlefield





The two photographs above, the one at the top taken in the 1890's and the lower photo after the restoration this year, present the Little Round-Devil's Den areas as they looked at these times. More work is required to restore the area (Bushman farm) in the left center background of the lower photograph to its appearance as shown in the photo above taken shortly after the battle.

Areas To Be Restored Were Selected After A Careful Study Of Maps Of 1868-69

Restoration of portions of the Gettysburg Battlefield to as near its appearance at the time of the battle, July 1, 2, 3, 1863, is presented herewith in words and photographs with the assistance of the National Park Service staff here.

When $75,000 was appropriated for the restoration work here Park Historians and Rangers selected areas for clearing. Their selection was based on the tree cover shown on the Park's Historical Base Map, a modification of the "Warren Map" which was made of the Battlefield area by the Army Topographical Engineers in 1868-69. The map shows elevation, fences, tree cover and building locations as they existed five years after the battle and, with modifications, is the most accurate guide available to the appearance of the Park during the Civil War.

FREE OF TREES

Cutting began on Little Round Top, the famous defensive position that played such a vital role in the battle of July 2. Little Round Top's rocky western slope was free of trees at the time of the battle and was a key terrain feature prized by both sides. It was the scene of important heavy fighting as Confederates attempted to wrest it from Union hands, but their attempt was unsuccessful. Each year redbud and dogwood trees color its slope in the springtime.

After cutting crews completed their work on Little Round Top, they began work in the fields to the west and north. Trees were removed from low ground, formerly cultivated, to the northwest of Little Round Top. Over these fields soliders of the Union 2nd and 5th Corps marched to a rendezvous with death in the Wheatfield. Among the units who passed over them was the famed Irish Brigade. Few of those who fought under its green flag returned from the Wheatfield that night.

MASS OF HUGE BOULDERS

West of Little Round Top are the Wheatfield and Devil's Den. Little cutting was needed in the Wheatfield itself, but much was needed near Devil's Den. The Den is a jumbled mass of huge boulders that spill from the end of a low ridge southeast of the Wheatfield. Because of the boulders, the area could not be mowed. Shoots sprouted, became sapling and trees. After a time the trees all but concealed the boulders and the area's character. The area was so changed, for instance, that cannon marking the position of a New York battery atop Devil's Den pointed unbelievably into a mass of half-grown trees, and unit markers were practically obscured by brush.

Another cutting area was most of the Wheatfield. It surrounded the stone farm buildings that at the time of the battle were the home of a Mr. Rose. On the night of July 2 this area was thickly strewn with the dead and wounded. These were Georgians and South Carolinians who fell in an attack on the Union forces west of the Wheatfield. The story goes that Rose was so discouraged with the shambles at his farm that he sold it and moved away.

CLEAR 130 ACRES

Well over $50,000 found its way into the pockets of the jobless of Adams County as a result of this brush removal project. Cutting crews cleared away 130 acres of brush and trees — approximately one half of the amount of clearing that should eventually be done. Although much of that which was cut was valueless and was burned, the Park sold the smaller logs as cordwood. The money received from this sale was sent to the general fund of the United States Treasury.

Other salvageable wood is also being put to good use. A quantity of hickory cordwood will be sent to Independence National Historical Park in Philadelphia. There it will be laid in fireplaces in Independence Hall as similar hickory firewood was used when Benjamin Franklin, John Adams, Thomas Jefferson and James Madison labored there to found this country. A number of the oak logs will be cut for bridge planking for use along the C&O Canal — now the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal National Monument. Other logs will be used for needed benches at Gettysburg National Military Park.

WAS CAREFULLY STUDIED

When asked about the completed restoration program Kittridge Wing, superintendent of the Park, said:

"The tree and brush clearing the Devil's Den area was carefully studied by a landscape architect of the National Park Service, who made recommendations for the selective removal of pine and cedar to better expose the majestic rocks of the area, which at the time of the battle were almost unvegetated. In this locality, and elsewhere on the field, all flowering dogwood and redbud trees were retained.

"The preservation of the historic scene required not only the removal of intruding brush and trees on the once-cultivated fields, but also encompasses the replacement of several features of the old farms: Where apple orchards once existed, they are to be replaced, under a program now awaiting funds. Also a great many historic rail fences will be set in the positions they once occupied, both to give authenticity to the scene and to restore the charm of the previous century.

EXTENDS TO CEMETERY

"This restoration program extends also to the National Cemetery. There the Park is making a careful effort to preserve and maintain the cemetery in the manner intended by its founders. This involves the replacement of dead trees and shrubbery as needed according to plans created by National Park Service landscape architects."

This is a view of the slope of Little Round Top taken from the Devil's Den area. The upper photograph shows how the slope looked shortly after the battle, the lower photo after the restoration.

CUBA GAINED INDEPENDENCE 62 YEARS AGO

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Cuba observed the 62nd anniversary of its independence from Spain Wednesday amid reports of sabotage and threats of armed action against the Communist dictatorship of Fidel Castro.

This was the day on which Manuel Ray, Castro's first minister of public works, promised to be fighting in Cuba against his former chief.

From Havana, The Associated Press reported that Cuban armed forces were placed on a state of alert and all military leaves were canceled.

Then the telephone line went dead, not unusual for circuits between Cuba and the United States.

HOPED FOR RAID

The Miami exile colony was excited over the possibility that Ray, or one of two other groups, would make a raid on Castros island during the day.

Headquarters of the three groups said only that they still plan to carry guerrilla warfare, sabotage and subversion to their homeland soon.

A shortwave broadcast purporting to originate inside Cuba said on Wednesday that commandos of the anti-Castro Student Directorate, still another exile group, had burned hundreds of acres of sugar cane in eastern Cuba.

The broadcast, monitored in Miami, also reported that saboteurs had burned three taxicabs in Havana and that anti-Castro slogans had been painted on walls in Cuba's capital city.

In Miami, officials of the Student Directorate declined to discuss the broadcast, but a spokesman said the organization would issue a communique later in the day.

ANNOUNCES PREPAREDNESS

Havana radio made no mention of the reported sabotage, but blared defiance to aggressors and announced new preparedness measures, including worker mobilization in Oriente Province, Cuba's largest and easternmost.

Broadcasts monitored in Miami did not mention the armed forces alert and cancellation of military leaves, but the Cuban Ministry of Health called for blood donations for "any emergency."

The Cuban Armed Forces Ministry did say that coastal artillery and military jet planes would hold maneuvers along the northwest coast of Cuba.

A spokesman at headquarters of Ray's organization in Miami said: "We are waiting to hear from him in Cuba. We have not heard from him."

Forbids Line-ups Without Consent

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A federal judge has forbidden use of prisoners in line-ups unless police have the prisoners' permission.

Dist. Court Judge Abraham L. Freedman ruled Tuesday there was substantial merit in suits filed by two prisoners at the City Detention Center in Holmesburg. They contended forced participation in a line-up violated their constitutional rights.

TRUEX CREDITS FITNESS AT 70 TO EXERCISE

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "With actors like Charles Coburn and Edmund Gwenn gone now, people look to me as a patriarch," said Ernest Truex. "But I don't feel like a patriarch."

For proof, he patted his flat stomach and flexed the muscles of his calf. "Exercise is what does it," he said. "I'm a nut about golf, I love to fish, and I work among my avocado trees. I'm good for a few more years."

So impressed was Universal that the studio wanted Truex to mark his 70 years as an actor by riding a lion. Truex is appearing in "Fluffy," with Tony Randall, Shirley Jones and an overgrown tabby named Zamba. The script called for Truex to demonstrate the lions gentleness by riding it down a trailer ramp.

"You'll have to get yourselves another boy," said Truex. A stunt man was ordered, and his leg was scraped badly on the door of the trailer.

Truex is known to movie audiences as the fussy, often henpecked character of dozens of film comedies. The typing is unfair and unfortunate, since he is one of the theater's most versatile actors.

He relishes telling the story of how his career started. How his doctor-father treated a ham actor stranded in Kansas City. How the ham paid his fee by teaching young Ernest soliloquies from "Hamlet."

"I made my debut in 1894 at the age of 5—the youngest Hamlet in the American theater," he said.

His movie career started 50 years ago. He had been playing on Broadway in "Good Little Devil" with a girl named Mary Pickford. They were offered a chance to make it as a film for Adolf Zukor's new company.

REDS CAPTURE NEW AREAS IN LAOS BATTLE

By TONY ESCODA

VIENTIANE, Laos. (AP) — The last positions held by neutralist forces in the Plaine des Jarres region have fallen to the Communists, Premier Souvanna Phouma announced Wednesday.

Neutralist Gen. Kong Le abandoned his emergency command post and withdrew further southwest in the face of continuing Communist pressure, a spokesman for Souvanna said.

U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk urgently recalled Adlai E. Stevenson, the chief U.S. delegate to the United Nations, from a European trip because of the deepening crisis in Southeast Asia.

POSITION FALLS

A government statement said "following massive attacks, prepared well in advance launched by the Lao-Viet — Pathet Lao and North Vietnamese — troops against our neutralist positions in the Plaine des Jarres and Muong Phanh, the last neutralist positions existing on the plateau of Xieng Khouang have fallen."

Muong Phanh, perched on the western edge of the Plaine des Jarres, was Kong Le's original headquarters site which the Communists took Monday after an offensive over the weekend.

The statement did not pinpoint additional neutralist positions that have fallen. Earlier it was reported that the neutralists were clinging to several positions on the fringes of the plain, headquarters for Kong Le's armored regiment some 20 miles northwest of Muong Phanh.

FRESH RED ATTACK

Kong Le's withdrawal — his second in two days — was not reported caused by a fresh Red attack although two Communist battalions, roughly 800 men, were said to be close behind. It appeared to be that the neutralist general was seeking to avoid a showdown battle.

After the withdrawal from Muong Phanh on Monday, Kong Le set up a new command post in a hilltop position at Ban Khong, four miles southwest of Muong Phanh.

Western military observers had believed the neutralist position at Ban Khong would be defended.

MADRID (AP)—Cuban refugees report there are rumors in Havana that Wilma Espin, top woman in Cuban Premier Fidel Castro's Communist government, has resigned her posts.

She is the wife of Raul Castro, defense chief and brother of the premier.

PROTECTS YOUR PROPERTY FOR ONLY
$4 A MONTH

If you live beyond the limits of regular street lighting, here's your own private outdoor lighting service. On at dusk—off at dawn, it provides these big advantages—

- protects your property—discourages prowlers, thieves and vandals
- prevents accidents—makes steps, garages and driveways safer
- gives your family a sense of security
- sets off the beauty of buildings and property

And you pay just $4.00 a month. No investment—no additional charges. This flat fee includes the lighting fixture itself, complete installation, photoelectric cell to turn it on at dusk and off at dawn, electricity to operate the light, and any necessary maintenance — including replacement of burned-out lamps.

Find out today why Dusk To Dawn lighting is a smart idea for any property-owner. Use the coupon below, or call your nearest Metropolitan Edison Company office.

James MARLOW Reports

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP) — Alabama's segregationist Gov. George C. Wallace has proved his point: There is wide opposition to President Johnson's civil rights bill to give Negroes equal treatment in many spheres of American life.

This is what he said he wanted to prove when he entered the presidential primaries in Wisconsin, Indiana and Maryland, where a victory would have let him capture their delegates to the Democratic National Convention.

He lost in all three in running against stand-ins for Johnson: In Wisconsin to Gov. John W. Reynolds; in Indiana to Gov. Matthew E. Welsh; and Tuesday in Maryland to Sen. Daniel B. Brewster.

CIVIL RIGHTS ISSUE

But—in Wisconsin he got about 34 per cent of the Democratic vote, in Indiana about 30 per cent and in Maryland roughly 40 to 45 per cent.

His main appeal was against the civil rights bill—now stuck for 11 weeks in the Senate because of a Southern filibuster against it.

It is too soon to say what effect his showing, particularly in Maryland, will have on the bill. But it will fortify the Southerners who can say now with good evidence that they're not alone in wanting it killed.

MAJORITY IS OPPOSED

If the supporters of civil rights can take any solace from the results of Wallace's three campaigns it is this: In all three states the majority of the voters were against him.

Probably very few of the people voting in these primaries have read the civil rights bill in its entirety or, if they have, could claim to understand all its legal implications.

Wallace combined his attack on civil rights with an appeal to those who see, or think they see, the encroachment of socialism in American life.

APPEALED TO RACISTS

He said at one rally: "This bill would take over every home, farm, business, and labor union in your state. The left-wingers want to drive this country straight to socialism.'

Knowing that liberals, favoring civil rights legislation, were against him, Wallace's appeal was to conservatives and racists. He said he expected to get a vote which would knock the liberals' "eyeteeth" out.

Always he argued the civil rights bill is an invasion of states' rights. Putting equal treatment for Negroes in double harness with states' rights was probably especially helpful to Wallace in Maryland.

MARYLAND PROBLEMS

That state has been up to its neck in the states' rights issue.

One of the cases in which the Supreme Court ruled out official prayers in public schools came from Baltimore. The Maryland House of Delegates has been reapportioned by court order. And a federal court has ordered the state's congressional districts redrawn.

Last March, the Maryland Legislature passed a public accommodations law—the Senate's civil rights bill has a somewhat similar provision—prohibiting racial or religious discrimination by operators of restaurants, hotels, inns and similar eating and lodging places. It did not apply to bars, taverns or cocktail lounges.

LOCAL DISTURBANCE

On top of all this, there had been severe racial disturbances on Maryland's Eastern Shore, especially in Cambridge, where National Guardsmen last week used tear gas to disperse demonstrating Negroes.

All these factors had Maryland steamed up before Wallace ever got there. He didn't miss any bets in talking on the sore points. For instance, he brought in the Supreme Court's ban on official prayers or required Bible reading.

Early this month, preaching in a Baptist church, he asked, "Did you ever think the Bible would have to be bootlegged into the schools?"

SAYS PRAYER IN INAUGURAL WAS IKE'S IDEA

NEW YORK (AP)—Evangelist Billy Graham said today it was President Eisenhower's decision to include a prayer in his 1953 presidential inauguration ceremony.

Commenting on what he said was "continuing speculation" that he urged Eisenhower to include a prayer in the ceremony, Graham said: "This is not true. The idea was his (Eisenhower's) own."

Graham said that five days before the inauguration the President-elect told him of his desire "to set a moral example to the nation," and said he would like "to bring something spiritual into his inauguration ceremony."

In his autobiography in the June issue of McCall's Magazine Graham said he then told Eisenhower: "General, you can do more to inspire the American people to a more spiritual way of life than any man alive."

"We reviewed several appropriate Bible passages. His decision to use a verse of Scripture and to include a prayer in his inauguration strengthened the faith of many Americans."

Fairfield

FAIRFIELD—The bridge club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Taylor, McGinley Drive, Monday evening. Prizes were won by Mrs James Donaldson, Mrs. J. Warren Martin and Mrs. Luther Kepner. The club will meet June 8 at the home of Miss Helen McCleaf.

The NCCW of St. Mary's Church will meet Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. George Pecher to elect officers and plan the second annual picnic to be held in June.

There will not be a regular meeting of the Band Auxiliary this month. However, the group will meet on June 2 at the school to make final plans for the strawbery festival to be held on June 6 beginning at 4 o'clock.

The annual meeting of the Cemetery Association was held Monday evening in the Parish Hall with 14 persons present. President Calvin Bream presided. The discussion included the prices of the lots, the nuisance of artificial flowers, tighter restrictions on planting shrubbery and placement of large containers on graves, and blocking traffic in the drive.

The following officers were re-elected: President, Calvin Bream; vice president, Clarence Weikert; secretary, Mrs. Samuel Musselman; treasurer, Frank Moore; directors are Roy Metz, D. P. Polley, Clarence Weikert, Floyd Baker, Lance McCleaf and Max Sites.

Frank Moore was elected secretary-treasurer of the directors.

MAMIE SAYS D-DAY WAS HER LONGEST

NEW YORK (AP) — Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower said today the longest day of her life was D-day, June 6, 1944, when Gen. Eisenhower directed the invasion of France.

In a copyrighted article in McCall's Magazine, the wife of the former President said the only day" . . . that matched it in length was the day Ike had his heart attack."

Mrs. Eisenhower said she learned of the D-day landings early in the morning through a telephone call, probably from a newsman.

HUSBAND AND SON

"The reality of the news was a shock," she relates. "I had two of them; my husband and my son, all I had in the world.

"Ike was in it; Johnnie was heading right toward it. But somehow, with Ike, I had the philosophy all along that God was never going to let anything happen to him as long as he was needed.

"As for John, well, he was going to be just a second lieutenant in the infantry, and he had hostage value for the enemy, in addition . . . if I had known then what they were up against . . . it would have been much worse for me."

Mrs. Eisenhower said she doesn't think either she or her husband "really knows what the other went through," despite having talked about it.

"I think I felt most strongly the awesome responsibility he held—to have to send all those men into action. It's something that's hard to grasp."

Their son was graduated from the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, N. Y., on the same day Gen Eisenhower was directing the Normandy landings.

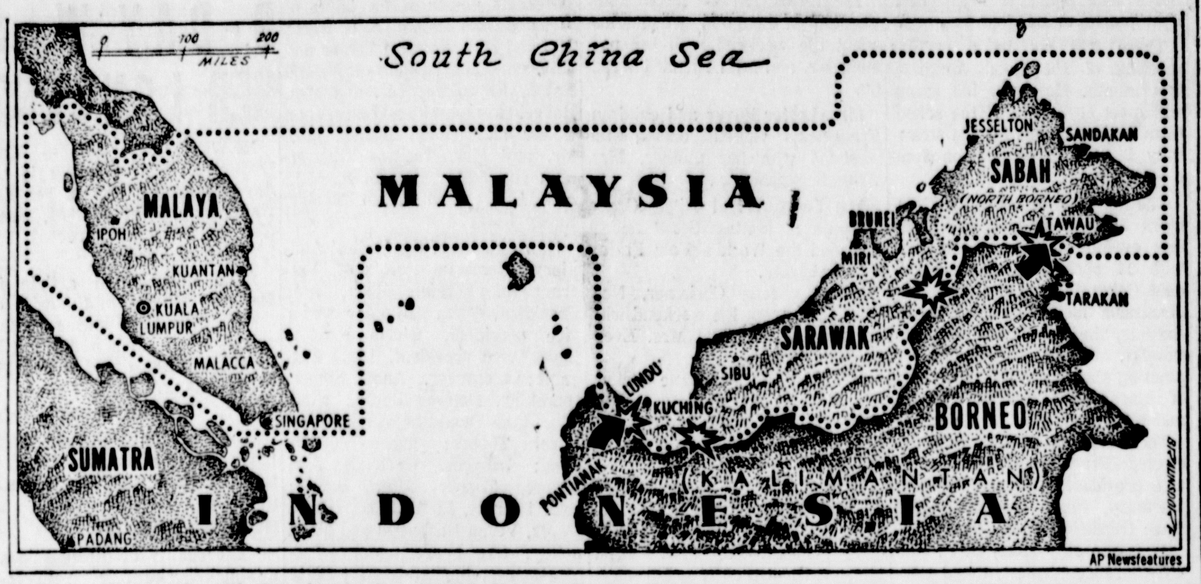
BORNEO: Third Largest Island; Nasty Little War

By RICHARD F. NEWCOMB
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Borneo, the world's third largest island, is an unlikely place to fight a war.

It is mostly heavy jungle, rugged and mountainous in the interior and with few communications routes other than rivers. Rainfall exceeds 100 inches annually and the monsoon season is long, November through May. The interior is inhabited mostly by semi-pagan Dyak tribes, some of whom still hunt heads. The coastal areas, mostly swampy, support a hodge-podge population of Chinese, Malays, Arabs and Javanese.

There are, of course, the British, and there lies the rub. The southern two-thirds of the island, some 200,000 square miles, is called Kalimantan, and forms one of the 10 provinces of Indonesia. Along the northern rim of the island are the states of Sarawak and Sabah (formerly called North Borneo), and together with Malaya and Singapore they form the new nation of Malaysia. Malaysia, with British protection, was born in 1963, and President Sukarno of Indonesia has sworn to liquidate it.



NASTY LITTLE WAR

A "nasty little guerrilla war" is already simmering along the rugged 800-mile border between Kalimantan and Sarawak and Sabah.

It could become much more. As usual in the world's trouble spots, the Soviet Union is there, marching side by side with Sukarno. Western sources estimate that Russian military aid to Indonesia — including MIG fighters and Badger twin-engine bombers — is half a billion dollars or more.

As to American aid to Indonesia — mainly nonmilitary — Sukarno has twice told U.S. Ambassador Howard P. Jones "to hell with your aid." He said it the last time before a throng of 400,000 Indonesians, gathered in a park in the shadow of the United States Embassy. He explained that he told this to Jones because "there are circles in the United States who attached the condition to their aid that Indonesia stop its confrontation of Malaysia." Confrontation is a euphemism for war, which has its economic counterpart in a boycott of Malaysian products. Most of them filter through Singapore, whose world trade is the life food of Malaysia.

INDONESIAN CASE

Defense Minister Abdul Haris Nasution states the Indonesian case this way:

"We are training them (guerrillas) and President Sukarno has even ordered us to mobilize our volunteers to fight together with the North Kalimantan fighters to wipe out the British colonialist plot (the formation of Malaysia). We all have the duty to end this foreign domination, which also would mean the end of colonialism, imperialism and foreign intervention in Southeast Asia. The chief task of the Indonesian armed forces is to crush Malaysia."

The Russian ambassador to Indonesia, N. A. Michailosov, chimes in: "The Soviet government and people will keep on helping the Indonesian people in their campaign to crush the neo-colonialist project of Malaysia."

RUGGED INTERIOR

The war has been mostly border infiltrations thus far, aided, where possible, by internal subversion. Because of the rigors of the interior country, there have been end-run raids along the coast, on the west and near Lundu, in Sarawak, and on the east toward Tawau, in Sabah. With an irony the British find less than amusing, the guerrillas are well - equipped with American field clothing and British, United States and Belgian weapons. For his buzzing raids on Kuching, capital of Sarawak, Sukarno sends not his Russian planes but B25 Mitchell bombers and P51 Mustang fighters.

In the face of the Indonesian offensive, Abdul Razak, defense minister of Malaysia, says: "We will defend ourselves with equal vigor and determination." The British have thrown in some of the famed Gurkha fighters from India, elements of the Commandos, the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, the Royal Air Force and the Royal Navy. Altogether, British forces in Borneo total perhaps 6,000, against an Indonesian armed force of 240,000.

SULTAN IS NEUTRAL

Standing neutral is the Sultan of Brunei, who rules a wedge of land the size of Delaware, tucked between Sarawak and Sabah. His Highness Sultan Sir Omar Ali Saifudding Wasa'dul Khairi Waddin is 47, and his little sultanate spews out oil at the rate of $20 million a year in royalties, faster than the sultan can spend it. Britain protects Brunei too, even though it refused to join Malaysia, and Brunei's principal worry at the moment is that, so the geologists say, the oil wells will run dry in 10 years. War, or Sukarno, may get there first.

Brig. Gen. Evans Dies Wednesday

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP)—Brig. Gen. Fred R. Evans, retired, former commander of the 109th Infantry Regiment, Pennsylvania National Guard, died Wednesday at the age of 66.

Gen. Evans commanded the 109th for eight years after succeeding Brig. Gen. T. Linus Hoban Sept. 1, 1948. He began his Army career when he enlisted as a private in Co. B of the 190th—the same regiment he later would command in 1920.

He was a native of Mt. Carmel.

He is survived by his widow and a daughter, Mrs. Herbert Schultz of Doylestown. Funeral Saturday with full military rites.

YOKOHAMA, Japan (AP)—A Chinese cook on the American liner President Wilson and the Chinese owner of a Yokohama bar have been arrested on charges of smuggling $830,000 worth of heroin into Japan.

NEW DELHI, Kndia (AP)—Four persons killed in an outbreak of shooting Monday night in Kashmir were Pakistani soldiers trying to gain a position within Indian army lines, an Indian Defense Ministry spokesman said today.

ROCKY DRIVES AGAINST BARRY IN COAST RACE

RIVERSIDE, Calif. (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller said that he doesn't believe a majority of his party's voters will regard Sen. Barry Goldwater's political philosophy as "responsible Republicansim."

The New York governor, with the campaign field all to himself, stepped up his attacks on his lone opponent in California's presidential primary — a test he said could make or break their battle for the nomination.

"This is it, in my opinion," he said of the June 2 election in a radio program Tuesday.

ASSESSES VOTES

Earlier he said that if Goldwater wins the race for California's 86 delegate votes it might put him over the 655 needed for the nomination at the Republican National Convention in July.

But, he added, if Goldwater doesn't cinch it on the first ballot "then he won't get it at all." The Arizona senator expects to go into the San Francisco convention with more than 500 delegates. Rockefeller has 28, but is counting on all of New York's 92.

CONTINUES CAMPAIGN

Goldwater headed back to Washington Monday and doesn't plan to return until next Monday. Rockefeller has scheduled four days of compaigning this week and five more next week.

Opening his final swing in Southern California, Rockefeller repeatedly singled out instances where he said Goldwater differed with former President Dwight D. Eisenhower and other "responsible" party leaders.

He said his upset victory in Oregon, where he ran ahead of Henry Cabot Lodge and Goldwater in a six-way contest, indicated the direction the voters want the GOP to take.

"GOLDWATER OUT OF STEP"

"At stake is whether the Republican party shall remain a party of progress, moderation and responsibility, or whether it shall leave the mainstream of American political thought and action and represent the narrow doctrinaire views of a small minority," he said in a statewide television appearance from Los Angeles Tuesday night.

In a speech prepared for California Baptist College in Riverside today, Rockefeller said that Goldwater is out of step with his party and the times.

$5 Million Pipe Line Is Planned

PHILADELPHIA (AP)— The Atlantic Pipe Line Co. is planning a 73-mile, 14-inch line from Montello, Pa., near Reading to Dewart in Northumberland County.

Harry G. Schad, president of Atlantic Pipe Line said Wednesday the petroleum products line will cost more than $5 million. The line is expected to cut 27 miles from the company's present route northwestward to Sunbury and Williamsport and Buffalo and Rochester.

Atlantic Pipe Line is a subsidiary of the Atlantic Refining Co.

Schad said the present 8-inch line has a capcity of about 30,000 barrels a day of petroleum products. The new, 14-inch line, he said, will carry 45,000 barrels a day at first and eventually will be able to carry up to 100,000 barrels a day. He said the new larger line is needed to meet "increasing demands."

Train Is On Fire After Derailment

LANDOVER, Md., (AP)— A Pennsylvania Railroad freight train reportedly carrying highly explosive liquid nitrogen was on fire early today after derailing near this Washington suburb.

Prince Georges County police said the train was carrying the nitrogen. A railroad spokesman said he did not know what the train was carrying.

There also were reports that one man was trapped in the wreckage.

Police blocked all traffic on two highways which ran parallel to the tracks.

LONDON (AP)—Quote of the day: The Rev. Max Warren, canon of Westminster Abbey and one of England's leading Anglican churchmen, assailed his countrymen for ill-tempered criticisms of Americans, and said: "It is a very lonely thing to be an American today. They are among the most misunderstood people in the world. They are busy learning the hard way that gratitude is not a political virtue."

200 SEE DATE STONE LAID FOR MUSEUM

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Scranton paid tribute to Pennsylvania's founder Wednesday in laying the date stone of the new $9.2 million William Penn Museum and Archives Building.

A crowd of about 200, including state officials, lawmakers and school children, stood on the plaza of the five-story circular museum to hear Scranton's brief remarks. The buildings, under construction since January, 1962, are tentatively scheduled for opening Aug. 1.

Brief remarks also were heard from James B. Stevenson of Titusville, chairman of the Historical and Museum Commission, and Dr. S. K. Stevens, executive director of the commission.

Following the speeches, Scranton placed a galvanized metal time capsule into the Alabama limestone date stone. Among the items in the capsule were a state flag, copies of legislation authorizing the buildings, speeches made at the ceremony, a photographic copy of William Penn's charter from King Charles II, a state road map, a copy of "Discover The New Pennsylvania," a state manual, coins and a newspaper.

Equal Opportunity Amendment Faces Major Changes In Civil Rights Debate

EDITOR'S NOTE—In the 11 weeks of the Senate civil rights debate, scores of amendments have been proposed to clarify, strengthen or weaken various parts of the bill. One provision attracting a major share of the suggested changes is the equal opportunity provision. The following article, the second of a three-part series on the bill's provisions, explains the equal opportunity title and the voter rights provision as they stand now and some of the proposals for changing them.

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the 11 weeks of Senate debate and cloakroom bargaining on the civil rights bill much of the attention has focused on the equal employment section.

It has attracted a large share of the scores of amendments proposed to change the bill.

The equal opportunity section, known as Title Seven, is one of two provisions which break ground for federal law The other is the public accommodations provision aimed at discrimination in hotels and motels, restaurants and amusement places.

HOPE TO BREAK FILIBUSTER

Republican and Democratic Senate leaders and administration officials have accepted a number of amendments to the job title as part of a whole package of changes Thev hope the proposed changes will win the bill the two-thirds majority needed to break the Southern filibuster.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen, chief author of the compromise package of amendments, is fond of pointing out there was no equal employment provision in the original civil rights bill submitted to Congress last year by the late President John F. Kennedy.

But Dirksen has said he can support its retention if his suggestions for changing it are accepted.

BANS DISCRIMINATION

As the bill cleared the House, it would ban discrimination in any phase of employment or membership on the part of employers, unions or employment agencies on grounds of race, color, religion, national origin or sex.

It would apply to companies and unions with 100 or more employes or members in the first year, 75 or more in the second, 50 or more in the third, and 25 thereafter.

A five - member Equal Employment Opportunity Commission would be created to receive complaints.

The commission is directed to try to settle any complaint by conciliation and persuasion. But if those methods fail, it may bring an injunction suit to end the discrimination.

Dirksen's agreed - upon package of amendments would modify this so that the commission could call on the attorney general to bring a suit only if a pattern of discrimination existed.

REQUIRES FILING SUIT

In individual cases, the aggrieved person would have to file suit, although the attorney general would be allowed to intervene.

Under the House bill, the federal commission could allow a state or local agency to handle a complaint if it found that the agency was functioning effectively.

Dirksen's amendments would strengthen power of the states by giving them exclusive jurisdiction of any case for a specific period. Thirty-one states now have fair employment practices laws of some type.

Southern senators simply want Title Seven eliminated.

They argue that it would give the federal government far too much power to interfere in hiring, firing and promotions.

WOULD EXTEND POWERS

The voting rights section of the House bill, Title One, would extend the federal powers in this field contained in the 1957 Civil Rights Act.

It would require that identical standards be applied to all voters in elections for federal officials, provide that immaterial errors on registration forms must be disregarded, and require that literacy tests must be in writing unless the individual agrees to an oral test.

In voter discrimination suits brought by the attorney general under the 1957 law, the presumption is created by the 1964 bill that a sixth-grade education is sufficient to meet the literacy test.

The attorney general is allowed to request that a three-judge court be set up to hear such suits.

Southern senators bitterly attack the latter provision, contending it would allow the attorney general to shop around for a favorable court.

They also insist that the title constitutes an additional interference with the right of states to control their own elections.

BAPTISTS VOTE LEGAL RIGHTS AID TO NEGROES

By TOM SEPPY

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—A Southern Baptist commission has recommended that the denomination's convention go on record in support of legislation guaranteeing legal rights of Negroes.

The commission apparently considered the recommendation the closest thing to endorsement of civil rights legislation that might be adopted by the convention, whose action is not binding on member churches.

The topic goes to the convention floor today and is certain to cause heated debate.

Northern Baptists were urged by a Negro leader Tuesday night at their convention to take a more active role in the civil rights fight.

The Rev. Dr Ralph B. Abernathy of Atlanta, a Baptist minister and associate of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., said: "It is a tragic fact that for too long the church has not been a voice, but rather an echo."

Racial issues have claimed a big part of the discussions of both the American (Northern) and Southern Baptist Conventions, meeting separately.

The civil rights recommendation was made by the Christian Life Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention, largest Protestant denomination in the United States. with more than 10 million members.

45 SURVIVORS OF SEA CRASH ARRIVE IN PORT

By JOHN LENGEL

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—"Oh, God, I love you, honey. I'm glad you're safe."

At this greeting, Randi Schjeldrup fell into the embrace of her Aunt Josephine after the nightmarish burning of a ship at sea, in which one died and nine others were missing.

Mrs. Schjeldrup, 29, her three small children and her husband, Sindre, were among 45 survivors from the Norwegian freighter Sandanger, on which Schjeldrup was chief engineer.

The 45 arrived here Tuesday night aboard their rescue ship, the German freighter Bodenstein.

The Bodenstein raced to aid the stricken Sandanger in the predawn hours Monday, less than an hour after the Sandanger was ripped by an explosion that ignited her cargo of baled cotton and wood pulp. The Bodenstein's crew plucked the survivors from liferafts near the burning ship.

As the rescue ship eased into port, the Sandanger was reported listing and sinking, still ablaze, 20 miles off the coast of Baja California, Mexico, 450 miles south of Long Beach.

Unknown was the fate of the ship's captain, John Kellmer, two stewardesses and six California passengers. The body of one woman passenger, tentatively identified as Juanita M. Benoy, 57, Alamo, Calif., was pulled from the sea by a Japanese ship, the Boston Maru.

Repeated explosions and the intense heat from flames have held up attempts to board the Sandanger to search for the nine missing.

World News

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — Students protesting the Japan-South Korea normalization talks clashed with police in demonstrations at Seoul and Tokyo on Wednesday.

About 1,000 left-wing Japanese students staged a sitdown and ignored blasts from fire hoses after police halted their march toward the Foreign Ministry.

Police in Seoul used tear gas to disperse about 1,000 students from 10 universities in the capital. More than 50 students were arrested. Police beat the students with fists and the students threw rocks at the police.

ADEN, Federation of South Arabia (AP)—About 300 rebel tribesmen have gathered in the Radfan hills, prompting British speculation that they may be discussing peace overtures to the government of the Federation of South Arabia.

COMPROMISE CANDIDATE PROPOSED IN SENATE RACE

HARRISBURG (AP) — Some Pennsylvania Democratic leaders are advancing the theory that perhaps it would preserve party unity if a compromise candidate were named to run for the U.S. Senate, according to party sources.

As of Wednesday, 3 weeks and one day after the April 28 primary, the Democrats had no candidate at all.

Justice Michael A. Musmanno, on leave from the state Supreme Court, led Genevieve Blatt, secretary of internal affairs, by 171 votes out of 920,000 votes cast.

COVER 63 COUNTIES

The figures take in the full count, with absentee ballots, in 63 counties, and unofficial tabulations, with unchallenged absentee ballots, from Philadelphia, Lackawanna, Somerset and Washington Counties.

The State Elections Bureau is withholding certification of one or the other candidate, pending completion of the official tabulation in the close election.

Attorneys for Miss Blatt have served notice in Dauphin County Court that if Musmanno is declared the winner, she will challenge the vote count on grounds of alleged irregularities.

"TRUTH TO STORY"

Democratic State Chairman Otis B. Morse confirmed reports Tuesday night that there has been talk among some party leaders about selecting a compromise candidate. In such a case, the certified primary winner would be asked to withdraw.

"There is truth ... to the story that some Democratic leaders have mentioned it," Morse said when reached at his home in York. "There has been some talk of it."

Morse was quick to dismiss "such talk" as "only talk" at this stage. He said he personally believed that Musmanno or Miss Blatt would be the nominee to run against U.S. Sen. Hugh Scott, the Republican incumbent.

Selection of a candidate by party leaders after the rank-and-file Democrats had made their wishes known at the polls "might be a serious handicap," he said.

"NO COMMENT"

Musmanno was asked in Pittsburgh for his reaction to the possibility of withdrawing in favor of a compromise candidate.

"No comment," he replied. "I am making it a point not to comment at this time."

In Harrisburg, Miss Blatt said "If I win the nomination, I will have won it. Nobody has asked me to withdraw. My action would depend upon the circumstances at that time.

EXPECTS VICTORY

"I feel a majority of the Democratic voters cast their ballots for me on April 28 and that will be eventually certified. Nobody has asked me to withdraw and I don't expect anybody to ask me. I won't speculate on what appears to be an inconceivable condition."

In Philadelphia, Francis R. Smith, Democratic city chairman told the Associated Press that he had not discussed with either candidate the possibility of their withdrawing.

19 Teen-agers To Face Grand Jury

HARRISBURG (AP) — Nineteen teen-agers including two charged with murder, will face grand jury action next month in a "get tough" policy set by Judge Walter R. Sohn of Juvenile Court.

Dist. Atty. Martin H. Lock said Tuesday his office has prepared bills of indictment against "by far the largest single number of juveniles ever to be turned over for prosecution as adults during a single term of criminal court here." The youths range in age from 14 to 17 years.

Sohn said he felt "the public is indignant over this recent juvenile crime wave."

Among the 19 facing grand jury action are Jerry Cofield, 15, and Ronald Dunbar, 14, charged with murder in the beating death of Paul S. Gundrum, 66, Harrisburg.

U. S. Soldier Killed In V. Nam Ambush

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—An American soldier was killed and an American officer wounded in an ambush Tuesday night while on operational patrol 45 miles northwest of Saigon near the Cambodian border.

The officer, a member of the U.S. Army Special Forces, was flown to a hospital in Saigon and was reported in good condition.

The death of the Special Forces enlisted man brough to 132 the numer of Americans killed in combat in Viet Nam since late 1961. The total of American deaths since then number 230.

SAYS ALLIANCE TO BEAT BARRY WAS 'LOGICAL'

NEW YORK (AP)—Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania says he approves of the alliance of the Rockefeller and Lodge forces formed in California in a move to beat Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona in the California presidential primary June 2.

Scranton, a potential compromise Republican candidate for president, who is on good terms with the Goldwater and anti-Goldwater forces, said Tuesday he does not believe there is a "full - fledged" movement in GOP ranks to stop Goldwater.

He said the California support given to New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller by the forces of Henry Cabot Lodge, ambassador to South Viet Nam, was a "normal and logical"move by those interested in the nomination. Rockefeller and Goldwater are the only candidates entered in the contest for California's GOP convention delegates.

Backers of Lodge, hoping to keep the GOP convention open, decided Monday to support Rockefeller in California in an effort to keep Goldwater from adding the state's delegates to his front-running national total.

Answering newsmen's questions, Scranton said he and his political associates are not involved in an anti-Goldwater campaign. Speaking of California, he said: "If I were a candidate, like Lodge, I might do the same thing." Lodge has not announced any candidacy.

Scranton made the statements prior to a nonpolitical luncheon at the Bond Club, where he was guest speaker.

At a news conference after the luncheon, Scranton said a published report about a private conversation between him and President Johnson last week was "absolutely untrue."

The report had Scranton telling Johnson that he did not want the Republican nomination because Johnson's Republican opponent would be putting "his head in a meatgrinder."

Scranton said of the report:

"I did tell him—as I have told everybody else—that I do not want to run for president or vice president."

He repeated that he would be receptive to a convention draft, and added: "I do not think a draft can come in the modern practice of politics . . . I do not think there will be a deadlock."

Scranton's speech before 330 Wall Street investment bankers at the Bond Club dealt with progress being made on several fronts in Pennsylvania and opportunities for business and industry in the state.

"I am here to sell Pennsylvania," he said. He declared that his state has a tax structure fair to business, and added: "We are proud of the fact that we don't soak business in Pennsylvania nor do we offer them a free hand."

TEACHERS END STRIKE, DELAY NEW CONTRACT

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah (AP) — Utah's 10,000 public school teachers have voted to end a two-day walkout, after preparing for the next round in their fight for more money for education.

About 90 per cent of the teachers voted Tuesday to resume teaching today, but they also decided not to sign next year's contracts until a special legislative session is called to consider an emergency $6 million school appropriation, and other demands are met.

The normal time for signing teachers' contracts has gone by.

Chances of recruiting new teachers from out of state appear slim. The National Education Association asked its 902,000 members not to accept jobs in Utah until the crisis is over.

Besides the legislative session, the teachers asked at a mass meeting for approval of Utah Education Association solutions to "the financial problems of the educational situation"

Shortening the 1964-65 school year has been discussed as one such solution.

New Plan Replaces Caroline's School

WASHINGTON (AP) — Caroline Kennedy's famous White House school is being closed a the end of the present term. One of its teachers will take over a new cooperative school Mrs. John F. Kennedy is setting up for John Jr., 3, and his friends.

Caroline, 6, who is finishing first grade, will attend the Sacred Heart Convent, a Roman Catholic school in Bethesda, Md., next year. Her school has been meeting at the British Embassy since her father was assassinated.

Alice Grimes of Providence, R.I., Caroline's teacher this year, will take over the cooperative, which will meet in the children's homes, a spokesman for Mrs. Kennedy said Tuesday.

Set To Fire First Unmanned Apollo

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) —The first attempt to orbit an unmanned model of the Apollo moonship is scheduled next Tuesday.

A Saturn 1 rocket will propel the Apollo model toward an intended orbit ranging from 110 to 140 miles above the earth.

The rocket and spacecraft are forerunners of machinery being developed to launch three-man teams to the moon late in this decade.

RE - CAPTURE 3 ESCAPEES

YORK, Pa. (AP)—Three prisoners escaped from the York Co. prison Wednesday after binding and gagging a guard. One gave himself up three hours later and the other two were apprehended in Maryland.

The prisoners are Robert (Benny) Lewis, 29, York; Charles Snyder, 21, York, and George A. Ferguson, 24, no address.

The three men escaped from their cells at 1:25 a.m., and captured guard Robert Nicholson, 24, Dillsburg. They tied Nicholson up and gagged him. Ferguson and Snyder took Nicholson's sports car and headed for Maryland. They were apprehended by Maryland state police at 5:55 a.m.

Lewis went to his York home, then turned himself in to police at 4:35 a.m.

Lewis was serving a term for assault with a deadly weapon; Ferguson was serving a term for car stealing and Snyder was serving a term for armed robbery.

PARIS (AP) — President Charles de Gaulle will interrupt his convalescence at his estate in eastern France to preside at a Cabinet meeting in Paris today.

CONGRESS AGE LIMIT SOUGHT

WASHINGTON (AP) —A constitutional amendment that would prevent anyone over 70 from running for Congress is being proposed by a 67-year-old foe of the seniority system.

Rep. Everett G. Burkhalter, D-Calif., whose blast several weeks ago at the old-timers in control startled his colleagues, followed up Wednesday by introducing legislation to retire them.

His bill would limit senators to three 6-year terms, representatives to five 4-year terms —present terms are two years —and declare that no one could be elected after reaching 70.

Burkhalter, the oldest freshman in the House, has already announced he is quitting after one term. He says he is disgusted at being shackled by a system he says requires members to put in 20 or 25 years before they can hope to have much impact on the affairs of Congress.

CHICAGO (AP) — Comedian Bob Hope has received the annual national citizenship award of the Military Chaplains Association.

The award was presented to Hope Tuesday night at the organization's convention in Chicago. He was cited for "tireless, unselfish efforts" to bring "warmth and cheer by personal visits" to members of the armed forces.

AGENTS SEIZE WEAPONS PILE OF MINUTEMEN

CLINTON, Ill. (AP) — U.S. Treasury agents have seized a stockpile of machine guns, flame throwers, mortars and explosives and arrested a one-time Illinois leader of "The Minutemen," a nationwide anti-Communist group.

The agents, who posed for weeks as middlemen for an unnamed foreign weapons buyers, said they paid $17,000 to Richard Lauchli, 37, for the arms in an abandoned barn. The agents also arrested Donald Sturgis, 36.

An inventory showed at least 100 submachine guns, five 50-caliber tripod-mounted machine guns, a flame thrower, several 25-pound aerial bombs, several mortars, many automatic pistols and rifles, and ammunition for all the weapons.

In addition, Treasury agents raided Lauchli's home and confiscated more submachine guns and another flame thrower.

Asst. U.S. Atty. Leon Scroggins said Lauchli and Sturgis were charged in a federal complaint in Springfield, Ill., with possession of unregistered automatic weapons. He said Lauchli bought the weapons as scrap and reconditioned them.

NOW... GREAT NEW ESSO EXTRA!

PUT A TIGER IN YOUR TANK!

New Power-formula Esso Extra gasoline boosts power three ways . . . preserves the power of new engines . . . restores lost power to many older engines:

1. Cleaning Power! Dirt can clog even a new carburetor in a few months of normal operation —causing hard starting and rough idling. Your very first tankful of New Esso Extra will start to clear away these deposits to improve power and mileage.

2. Firing Power! Spark plug and cylinder deposits can cause misfiring, pre-ignition and hot spots. New Esso Extra neutralizes these harmful deposits to help your engine fire smoothly and efficiently.

3. Octane Power! Octane requirements for new cars are up again this year. New Esso Extra has the high octane that most cars now need for full performance, smooth acceleration and passing power without knocking.

You'll get something extra for your money with New Power-formula Esso Extra—it's like putting a tiger in your tank! Happy Motoring!

U. S., SOVIET DELAY TESTING MANNED SHOTS

By EUGENE LEVIN

FLORENCE, Italy (AP) — It may be a year before either the United States or the Soviet Union undertakes major new manned space ventures.

Both countries must solve crucial problems before they can try space experiments more spectacular than the manned orbital flights of 1963.

During the annual meeting of the International Committee on Space Research — COSPAR — which closed Wednesday, United States and Soviet scientists said manned space flights had raised the question of whether a man could tolerate more than five days in space with present equipment.

SHOW AFTER-EFFECTS

The scientists said astronauts were showing such after-effects of space flights as low blood pressure. Delegates from both day flights by Soviet astronauts last year were about the longest that could be safely attempted now.

Prof. Anatoli Blagonravov, chief Soviet delegate, said it might be a year before his country is ready to try a major new venture.

The United States reported it planned to start flights by two-man Gemini ships by the end of 1964 or early in 1965. Privately, American scientists said the first Gemini ship probably would not be launched for a year.

The Soviet Union and the United States plan to continue sending satellites and rockets aloft.

FRENCH PLAN TESTS

Italy and France also have important space plans. The Italians hope to launch their first satellite, using a floating launching platform off Kenya and an American rocket. France is preparing to orbit a 100 per cent French satellite with a 100 per cent French rocket.

Other space experiments being planned:

—By the end of 1964, a Mars probe by a U.S. Mariner rocket that will fly past the planet and transmit television pictures back to earth.

—By 1970, U.S. and Soviet attempts to put artificial satellites in orbit around Mars.

Today In Washington

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the news from Washington:

NATIONAL DEBT: Informed sources say the Treasury is expected to ask Congress to raise the national debt ceiling to $320 billion or more for the fiscal fiscal year that starts July 1.

The present temporary debt limit is $315 billion but this is scheduled to stop automatically to $309 billion on June 30. Unless Congress acts, the limit will revert the next day to the permanent ceiling of $285 billion.

The national debt now is $309.2 billion.

WAGE-PRICE: The AFL-CIO again has challenged President Johnson's appeal for labor and business to hold the wage-price line.

"Neither wage nor price restraints are tolerable in a free society except in the gravest national emergency, and then only when coupled with stringent restraints upon excess profits," the labor group's Executive Council said in a statement Tuesday.

PAPERWORK: Unnecessary reports to the government can cost a small businessman $3,000 to $5,000 a year, a spokesman told a House subcommittee on Government Statistics today.

George J. Burger, vice president of the National Federation of Independent Business, set this price in testimony prepared for the subcommittee's hearings on reduction of paper work.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The Cuban Armed Forces Ministry said Wednesday coastal artillery and military jet planes would hold maneuvers along the northwest coast of Cuba.

Havana radio reported the ministry warned ships and aircraft that the area from San Pedro Beach, in Cabanas, to Pinar del Rio Province should be avoided between 9 a.m. and 2 p.m. Ships were warned that navigation would be dangerous within seven miles of the coast.

Budget Excludes Public Schools

FARMVILLE, Va. (AP)— Prince Edward County supervisors have approved a tentative operating budget under which the county would continue as the only one in the United States without public education.

The $376,000 earmarked Tuesday for education is for tuition grants to permit youngsters to attend private schools. The county has been enjoined by a federal court from dispensing such grants.

The U.S. Supreme Court is expected to rule soon on a suit by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People asking that the county's public schools be reopened. The county closed the schools in 1959 when ordered by a federal court to integrate them.

Soviet Obtains Algerian Base

PARIS (AP) — The paper Figaro said today that the Soviet Union and Algeria reportedly have signed an agreement providing for a Soviet nuclear submarine base in Algeria.

The Figaro dispatch was written by its correspondent in Madrid. It gave no further details.

SIGN CONTRACT TO GUARANTEE WORK PROGRAM

BERNE, Ind. (AP)—An agreement that could cost union members up to six weeks' pay and management a comparable amount if they let future negotiations collapse was ready today for final signatures.

The contract, called the first of its kind in the history of collective bargaining, is to be signed in New York Thursday by Harold D. Sprunger, president of the Dunbar Furniture Corp. of Berne, and Sal B. Hoffman, president of the Upholsterers' International Union.

Local union and management officals signed the agreement in Berne Tuesday. Present wage scales were not disclosed.

Dunbar employs about 300 workers, 70 per cent of them union members. The only strike at the plant, in 1959, was settled one day short of six weeks.

This is the way the contract works:

For a period up to 12 weeks beginning with the start of negotiations, 50 per cent of employes' wages and a matching amount from company funds will be paid to the First Bank of Berne, which will donate its services.

If agreement is reached within six weeks, all the money held by the bank is returned. If a settlement is arrived at within nine weeks the payoff is 75 per cent. Up to 11 weeks it drops to 50 per cent, the 12th week to 25 per cent.

If the 12-week period expires without an agreement all the money goes to a community or charitable project, with the Berne Ministerial Association to determine the recipient if union and management cannot agree.

After 12 weeks the union may strike or the company may impose a lockout, but only after giving advance notice. Otherwise the previous agreement is renewed automatically for one year.

Farmers Advance Spring Planting

HARRISBURG (AP) — Farmers made headway in their spring planting last week under sunny skies, the Pennsylvania Crop Reporting Service says.

Most localities received less than half an inch of rain, but soil moisture was adequate in nearly all sections, the service said Tuesday in its weekly summary of crop conditions.

Prospects for fruit and first cuttings of hay remained bright.

The Nos. 3, 4 and 5 never appear on New York Yankee uniforms. They were retired after being worn by Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig and Joe DiMaggio.

Burma Terminates Highway Project

RANGOON, Burma (AP) — Burma's revolutionary government has terminated the $94.5-million Rangoon Mandalay highway project, financed by America, authoritative sources reported.

The U.S. ambassador, Henry Byroad, called at the Foreign Office Tuesday and was told of the Burmese decision to terminate the 1963 agreement with Washington.

Survey for the first section was well under way by the contractors, the Louis Berger Corp. of New Jersey.

The termination capped a series of steps aimed at reducing the U.S. influence in this strategic neutralist nation.

RERUNS HAVE TAKEN OVER ON TV NETWORKS

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Reruns have pretty well taken over the nation's television screens and the 1963-64 season has just about run its course.

The season will be well remembered for the coverage of the terrible events that started when shots rang out in Dallas on Nov. 22.

But it may be a memorable year in TV history for another reason: Negro performers began to turn up frequently in leading, supporting and extra roles in television dramas, and the sponsors began using Negroes in their commercials.

THE REAL TEST

"East Side, West Side," which was canceled after a season, had a young Negro actress as a prominent regular in the cast. One of the teachers in "Mr. Novak's" high school was a Negro and the series was renewed for another season.

Reginald Rose, creator and in charge of scripts for "The Defenders," which has always used Negro performers as principal characters — judges, district attorneys, policemen and defendants—said recently that although the situation had indeed improved enormously in this area, there was still a way to go.

He still did not feel free, he said, "to cast a Negro in a villainous role," and suggested that the Negro's position would be really secure when such a casting job would not draw complaints from the sensitive.

SHOW STO RETURN

It seems that New York has not lost, after all, the production of two of its five dramatic shows. The series moved to the West Coast after a local union strike shut down production.

Plautus Productions President Herbert Brodkin said on Monday that "The Defenders" and "The Nurses" would be produced in Hollywood "indefinitely." Tuesday, however, a vice president said both shows would return to New York after shooting one episode each in Hollywood.

PROBERS TELL OF CONFLICTS IN TRIAL NOTES

QUEBEC (AP) — Conflicting statements were made by Wilbert Coffin at a pretrial hearing in 1953 and in a death-row appeal two years later, a Royal Commission investigating the trial has been told.

Coffin, a prospector, was hanged in 1956 for the deaths of Richard Lindsay, 17, of Hollidaysburg, Pa. Lindsay, his father, Eugene, 47, and Frederick Claar, also of Hollidaysburg, were found dead in the Gaspe woods in the summer of 1953.

Noel Dorion, prosecutor at the murder trial in 1954, referred to the conflicting statements at a hearing Tuesday. He read an appeal statement in which Coffin said the younger Lindsay had given him a hunting knife in June 1955. Dorion then referred to a statement made at the original trial by Coffin, that "Lindsay never gave me any gifts at all."

Coffin's statement in 1955 also said he had received $580 in the late spring of 1953 — the hunters were slain in mid-June — in return for staking claims or other work.

Dorion again read from Coffin's statement at the preliminary hearing.

"When I left Gaspe I had about $50 or $60."

The 1955 statement was sent to Justice Minister Stuart Garson, but Coffin's bid for another chance was turned down and he was hanged Feb. 10, 1956.

Bishop Addresses Church Leaders

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—The Rt. Rev. Richard S. Emrich, bishop of the Diocese of Michigan, urged members of the Episcopal Church Tuesday night to look to the world wide communion of Anglican believers in order to broaden their concept of the church.

The Rev. Mr. Emrich spoke at the 60th annual convention of the Diocese of Harrisburg of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

The following officers were elected:

Chancellor, John I. Hartman, Lancaster; secretary-treasurer, Col. John J. Dubbelde Jr., Harrisburg; and registrar, the Venerable Frederick V. Homes, Muncy.

The gathering is being attended by some 200 lay clergy delegates representing 58 parishes in the diocese.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Temple University will increase its tuition by $80 per year in its undergraduate schools and colleges beginning in September, Dr. Millard E. Gladfelter, university president, announced Wednesday.

The new annual tuition in the undergraduate schools will be $920 for Pennsylvania residents and $1,020 for out-of-staters.

VIETNAMESE SEEK MEETINGS WITH CAMBODIA

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — A South Vietnamese spokesman at the United Nations says his government wants border talks with Cambodia and would welcome U.N. help to arrange them.

Pham Khac Rau, charge d'affaires of the South Vietnamese Embassy in Washington, stated this position in an interview Tuesday night after the Security Council opened debate on a charge by Cambodia that South Vietnamese raids across its border constituted aggression by South Viet Nam and the United States.

Rau denied the aggression charge. He said the border incidents arose because the Viet Cong Communists fighting to overthrow his government "have been able to use Cambodian territory as their sanctuary."

Rau said his government wanted to "remove the causes of these border incidents."

With the Soviet Union and Czechoslovakia voting no, the Security Council voted 9-2 Tuesday to let South Viet Nam join in the debate. The Saigon government first must send credentials authorizing a representative to speak for it since South Viet Nam is not a member of the U.N.

The debate was recessed until today to await word from Saigon.
